SNAPSHOTS ...

AJ McCarron returns for his senior season with two BCS National Championships and a 25-2 record as a starting quarterback at Alabama.

Life on The University of Alabama campus is defined by opportunities. If you want to get involved, join one of more than 350 student organizations, help plan concerts and speaker series, participate in intramural teams or run for student government.

If you enjoy the arts, you can take advantage of a rich and varied schedule of musical, dance and theatre performances, art galleries and exhibitions, lectures and readings by writers, poets and experts on every topic imaginable. You can enrich your knowledge of the state and University's history by visiting one of UA's fine museums, which house countless historical artifacts and offer hands-on exploration opportunities.

From the architecture on campus to the landscaping, The University of Alabama campus is one of the most beautiful places in the state of Alabama.

The Ferguson Center was completed in 1973. Plans at the time called for the building to be constructed over Woods Hall, but it was built just to the north thanks to a student campaign to save the art building.

The Ferguson Center Game Room located on the first floor is the perfect place to unwind, test your skill at a video game, play a friendly game of pool or ping-pong, or enter a campus tournament. With seven pool tables, video games, a ping-pong table, computer gaming and televisions, the Game Room offers a fun escape to the daily pressures of college life.

The University of Alabama offers a complete educational, cultural and social experience. Whatever your interests, you'll find a group, an organization, an activity or a program that will appeal to you at UA.

The newly expanded Student Recreation Center offers first-class recreation facilities to students, faculty and staff. It includes two multi-use gyms, nine multi-purpose courts, weight machines, 1/8-mile jogging track, extensive cardio area, locker rooms, indoor swimming pool, dry and steam saunas, 12 lighted tennis courts, four aerobics rooms, eight racquetball courts and a squash court—together encompassing more than 200,000 square feet. The facility's outdoor aquatic area, which opened in the summer of 2003, features a lazy river, lap swim, large water-park-type slide and lots of deck space.

to Greek life and everything in between.

TOP RANKED

Ranked among the top 50 public universities in the nation in U.S. News and World Report's annual college rankings for more than a decade, UA ranked 31st among public universities, its highest ranking ever, in the 2012 rankings. UA's latest college rankings include:

- The School of Law is ranked 29th among all law schools in the nation, spring 2012.
- The Manderson Graduate School of Business is listed 4th among the "top 10 most popular business schools," based on the percent of accepted applicants who chose to attend the school.
- The School of Social Work is ranked 52nd nationally, spring 2012.
- Alabama's fall 2011 freshman class ranked second in the nation among public universities in the enrollment of National Merit Scholars, with 181 scholars enrolled, up by more than 50 over last year's 128.
- Three UA students were named Goldwater Scholars and one was named a Truman Scholar this spring, bringing UA's totals for the last 25 years to 37 Goldwater Scholars and eight Truman Scholars. Alabama has produced a total of 15 Rhodes Scholars and numerous Hollings Scholars.
- The UA Libraries rank 56th out of 115 U.S. and Canadian university libraries qualifying for membership in the prestigious Association of Research Libraries and 32nd among public university libraries. UA has made dramatic improvement in the rankings, moving up from 102nd overall and 64th among public university libraries in the last 10 years.
- Enrollment at Alabama reached a record high of 31,747 for fall 2011. The entering freshman class, at 5,772 students, is the largest in UA history and includes 1,614 students who had a 4.0 or higher high school GPA.
- The undergraduate program at the Culverhouse School of Accountancy at Alabama is No. 20 in Public Accounting Report's latest annual professors' survey. The UA graduate program in accounting was ranked 24.
- PRWeek Magazine has recognized the public relations program in Alabama's College of Communication and Information Sciences as one of the top five programs in the nation each of the last four years.
- Participation in original research and creative activities is becoming a hallmark of the undergraduate experience at Alabama. More than 400 undergraduates now showcase their research and creative activity projects at UA's annual "Undergraduate Research and Creative Activity Conference."
- Alabama students are committed to community service: In the 2010-2011 academic year alone, more than 20,000 UA students completed more than 780,000 hours of community service with 120 community partners. Additionally, about 6,300 students participated in 150 service-learning courses.
- Alabama has been named to the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll by the Corporation for National and Community Service. The Community Service Honor Roll is the highest federal recognition a school can achieve for its commitment to service learning and civic engagement.

BILL BATTLE

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

William R. "Bill" Battle was named Director of Athletics at The University of Alabama on Friday, March 22, 2013, succeeding Mal Moore who had held the position since November, 1999. Battle joined the Crimson Tide after a career as a college football coach and entrepreneur that was consistently marked by innovation and foresight.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Battle attended The University of Alabama on a football scholarship and enjoyed a successful playing career as a three-year starter at end for the Crimson Tide under legendary head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1960-62. Battle was a member of Bryant's first national championship team at Alabama in 1961. Generally regarded as the team's best end throughout his playing career, he came to Tuscaloosa after starring in three sports at Birmingham's West End High School.

An excellent student, Battle holds a bachelor's degree from The University of Alabama and a master's degree from The University of Oklahoma. He was an Academic All-SEC selection as a senior in 1962 and was selected to play in the Senior Bowl all-star game in Mobile, Ala., in January of 1963. He was named first team tight end and second team defensive end on The University of Alabama All Decade Team of the 1960s.

Battle entered the coaching profession as a graduate assistant at The University of Oklahoma in 1963 under famed head coach Bud Wilkinson. In 1964 and 1965, he served as an assistant coach at the United States Military Academy while serving a two-year military tour. In 1966, he moved on to the University of Tennessee, where he served as an assistant coach under head coach Doug Dickey for four seasons (1966-69) until he was named head coach of the Volunteers in 1970. When he was named head coach, Battle was the youngest head coach in college football at the age of 28.

During his seven-year tenure as head coach (1970-76), Battle's teams went 59-22-2, finished three seasons ranked in the nation's top 10 among five top-20 finishes and won four out of five bowl games. Battle's Tennessee teams won 11 games once (1970) and at least 10 games in three different seasons (1970, 1971 and 1972). His first Tennessee team finished the seasons ranked fourth in both national polls. His 1971 team finished ranked ninth in both national polls and the 1972 Tennessee squad finished ranked eighth by the Associated Press and 11th by in the Coaches' poll.

Battle began a career in the private sector after his coaching career ended. He held various positions within Circle S Industries in Selma, Ala., and served as president of two different companies, as well as vice chairman of the Circle S Holding Company Board. During his six years at Circle S, the organization grew from two companies earning $12 million in annual sales to 10 companies earning $60 million.

Battle founded The Collegiate Licensing Company (CLC) in 1981, and served as president and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) until 2002. He also served as chairman of the board of Licensing Partners International (LPI), which was created in 2001 to represent the licensing interests of non-collegiate sports properties, as well as corporate and entertainment properties.

A 1981 inductee into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame, Battle was inducted as the first member of charter class of the National Collegiate Licensing Association Hall of Fame in 2000. He was the recipient of the 2005 Paul W. Bryant Alumni Athlete Award at The University of Alabama and was inducted into the International Licensing Industry Merchandisers' Association (LIMA) Hall of Fame in 2008.

Battle received a National Football Foundation award in December 2008 for Outstanding Contributions to Amateur Football. In June 2010, Bill was inducted into the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators' (NACMA) Hall of Fame. He was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, receiving its Lifetime Achievement Award in 2011. He currently serves on the boards of the Bank of North Georgia, the Bryant-Jordan Student-Athlete Foundation, The University of Alabama A-Club Educational & Charitable Foundation, the Crimson Tide Foundation, and the National Football Foundation.

Battle's wife, Mary, is a summa cum laude graduate of the University of Texas School of Nursing with a bachelor of science degree in nursing. She earned a master of science in healthcare administration from the University of Alabama-Birmingham. Mary currently serves on the Board of WellStar Health Systems of Atlanta, Ga., where she serves on WellStar's Foundation Board, in addition to serving as chairperson of WellStar's Major Gifts Committee. A member of the Arthritis Foundation of Birmingham, Mary is active in fundraising for research of rheumatoid arthritis.

The Battles have been active in fundraising for UAB's Department of Rheumatology and the school's Stem Cell Institute. In their leisure time, the Battles enjoy life on their ranch in Georgia. Mary is an avid equestrian while Bill enjoys working on various projects around the ranch.

UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA

PRESIDENT DR. JUDY BONNER

Dr. Judith L. Bonner was named the 28th president of The University of Alabama on November 1, 2012. Founded in 1831, the University is the state's flagship and a student-centered comprehensive research university.

Dr. Bonner recently served as interim president from March 5 until August 31, 2012. She was promoted to executive vice president and provost on April 1, 2006, after serving as provost and vice president for Academic Affairs since March 2003.

During the decade she served as provost, the University underwent transformational change growing from just over 19,000 students in 2003 to more than 33,600 students in 2012. Each year, the academic strength of the student body and the faculty exceeded the record set the previous year.

In addition, UA's athletics programs have excelled in recent years with four teams winning national championships in 2012. Former Athletics Director Mal Moore lauds Dr. Bonner's commitment to athletics as well as academics. "Dr. Bonner has long been a supporter of Alabama Athletics, and I am excited about her leadership of our great University.

We have a unique unity on our campus, a special bond between our athletics program and the University at-large. Dr. Bonner's leadership will only serve to enhance that relationship and the unity that has been such a vital part of our athletics and academic success over these many years," Moore said.

Dr. Bonner joined the faculty at The University of Alabama in 1981 as associate professor and head of the department of human nutrition and hospitality. She served as assistant academic vice president from 1985-1990 and as special assistant to the president from 1989-1991.

Promoted to professor in 1988, she was named dean of the College of Human Environmental Sciences in 1989 and held that position until 2003.

Prior to coming to UA, she held faculty appointments in the department of pediatrics at UAB and the department of medical dietetics at The Ohio State University.

Dr. Bonner earned her bachelor's and master's degrees from The University of Alabama and her Ph.D. from The Ohio State University, all in nutrition. Her research focused on nutritional needs of chronically ill children and on eating disorders, and has resulted in numerous publications.

Dr. Bonner is an active member of civic, scientific and professional organizations. Among other awards and honors, her accolades include the Distinguished Alumni Award from The Ohio State University, the AHEA Leader Award and the award for Outstanding Dietitian for the state of Alabama.

"WE HAVE SO MUCH TO BE PROUD OF AND SO MUCH TO LOOK FORWARD TO AND, TOGETHER WITH OUR ALUMNI, FANS, FRIENDS AND SUPPORTERS, WE WILL REMAIN COMMITTED TO EXCELLENCE AND QUALITY IN EVERYTHING WE DO."

- PRESIDENT DR. JUDY BONNER

Ryan
ANDERSON

Linebacker

6-2 • 255 • Fr. • RS

Daphne, Ala.

Daphne

Outlook:

Ryan Anderson comes off of a redshirt season with added knowledge and conditioning ... should challenge for time at outside linebacker.

2012 (Freshman):

Redshirted during his first season at The University of Alabama.

High School and Personal Data:

Came to the Capstone as one of the fastest risers in the class of 2012 ... a five-star prospect by 247sports.com who ranked him as the nation's No. 19 overall prospect and the No. 1 outside linebacker ... 247sports.com also ranked him as the No. 2 player in Alabama ... ranked 93rd in the ESPNU 150 and the site's No. 7 outside linebacker ... had four stars from ESPNU, Scout.com and Rivals.com ... listed at No. 98 in the Rivals100 as well as the No. 6 outside linebacker ... Scout.com had him as the No. 22 defensive end prospect ... No. 5 in the Mobile Press-Register's Elite 18 and No. 33 in the Super Southeast 120 ... a SuperPrep All-American and the publication's No. 25 linebacker ... also listed as the No. 8 player in Alabama by SuperPrep ... PrepStar All-Southeast Region ... a member of the Alabama Sports Writers Association's Super 12 ... an ASWA 6A All-State selection ... No. 3 on the Birmingham News's Super Seniors list ... turned in a strong showing at the Alabama/Mississippi All-Star Game ... coached by Glenn Vickery at Daphne ... had 105 tackles and 12 sacks as a senior in 2011 ... posted 75 stops and 14.5 sacks as a junior, helping Daphne to the state championship ... second cousin of former Alabama standout and current Cincinnati Bengal, Wallace Gilberry ... teammate of Alabama's T.J. Yeldon at Daphne High School ... chose Alabama over Auburn, Florida State, Tennessee and Illinois.

Defensive Lineman

6-2 • 270 • Fr. • RS

Lindale, Ga.

Pepperell

Outlook:

Dakota Ball comes off of a redshirt season and should challenge repetitions along the defensive line in 2013.

2012 (Freshman):

Redshirted during his first season at the Capstone.

High School and Personal Data:

Was an outstanding defensive line prospect for the 2012 class ... turned in a solid effort as a starting defensive tackle in the Under Armour All-America Game ... a four-star prospect by MaxPrep's Tom Lemming ... three-star defensive lineman by Rivals.com, Scout.com, 247sports.com and ESPNU ... Scout.com ranked Ball as the nation's No. 27 defensive tackle prospect ... Rivals.com rated him at No. 29 among defensive tackles and the No. 28 player in the state of Georgia ... ESPNU considered him the No. 27 defensive tackle, 152nd among players in the Southeast and No. 35 in Georgia ... 247sports.com ranked Ball as the No. 36 defensive tackle and the No. 35 player in Georgia ... PrepStar All-Southeast Region ... Georgia Sports Writers Association AA All-State selection as a senior when he made 73 tackles with 17 tackles for loss, seven sacks, 38 quarterback hurries, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries, including one he returned for a touchdown ... coached by Jeff Shifflett at Pepperell High School ... chose Alabama over Georgia, Tennessee, Georgia Tech, Clemson and South Carolina.

Kenny
BELL

Wide Receiver

6-1 • 180 • Sr. • 3L

Rayville, La.

Rayville

Outlook:

Kenny Bell brings outstanding speed and experience to the wide receiver position ... played in 37-career games with seven starts ... 36-career receptions for 712 yards and five touchdowns ... averages a team-best 19.8 yards per catch, including a 25.4 yards per catch average in 2012 ... will have the chance to build on his play-making ability in 2013.

2012 (Junior):

Played 12 games and started three, totaling 17 receptions for 431 yards and three touchdowns ... 12 of his 17 receptions went for first downs ... nine of his 17 grabs (53 percent) were 15-yards or longer ... eight receptions of 29-plus yards (85, 57, 54, 44, 39, 34, 33 and 29) ... led the team with a 25.4 yards per catch average ... posted career highs in receiving yards (431) and touchdowns (three) ... missed the SEC Championship Game and the Discover BCS National Championship Game due to a broken left leg suffered against Auburn. Michigan: Caught two passes for 26 yards, with a long reception of 19 in win against No. 8 Michigan. Arkansas: Caught two passes for 12 yards in win at Fayetteville. Florida Atlantic: His only reception of the game came in a big way, as he hauled in a career-long, 85-yard reception for touchdown on game's first possession. Mississippi: Caught two passes for 15 yards in win over the Rebels. Missouri: Had two receptions for 46 yards, including a long of 44. Tennessee: Latched onto two passes for 68 yards, including a 39-yard touchdown. Mississippi State: Streaked into the end zone on a 57-yard strike from AJ McCarron for his only catch of the game ... that grab put the Tide up 14-0 after two possessions, en route to 38-7 win over previously undefeated Bulldogs. Texas A&M: Averaged 24.3 yards per catch against the Aggies ... hauled in a 54-yard pass ... converted two first downs ... totaled three receptions for 73 yards. Western Carolina: Caught one pass for 34 yards in 49-0 win. Auburn: Made 15-yard reception for a first down before suffering a broken left leg in the second quarter.

on the team with 29 receptions for 461 yards and four touchdowns ... averaged 15.9 yards per catch and 35.5 yards per game ... 24 of his 29 receptions converted first downs (82.8 percent) ... had 11 "explosive" receptions (15-plus yards) ... earned offensive player of the week honors following the Western Kentucky and LSU games. Michigan: Caught three passes for 53 yards, including a grab of 28 ... all three receptions went for first downs. Western Kentucky: Caught a career-best two touchdowns on throws of 33 and 12 yards ... finished with three grabs for a career-best 92 yards ... all three catches went for first downs. Arkansas: Caught in one pass for 14 yards. Florida Atlantic: Saw limited playing time due to a slight injury. Mississippi: Caught two passes for 20 yards with a long reception of 17. Missouri: Made three receptions for 25 yards, including a long catch of 15. Tennessee: Caught two passes for 43 yards with a long of 35 yards ... both passes converted first downs for the Tide. Mississippi State: Made one reception for a 14-yard first down, on a perfect deep-out route. LSU: Picked up where he left off a season ago against the rival Tigers, catching a team-best and career-high five passes — 18, 15 and 11 yards — on the winning drive, all for first downs ... four of his receptions converted first downs and three went for 15 yards or more. Texas A&M: Caught one pass for a seven-yards first down, before being slowed by an injury. Western Carolina: Missed the game for precautionary reasons. Auburn: Equaled his career high with five receptions and two touchdowns (65 receiving yards) ... his touchdown catches were seven and 38 yards ... had four catches that converted first downs and two explosive catches of at least 15 yards. Georgia: Started his 10th game of the year but did not have a catch in the SEC title game. Notre Dame: Again played his best on the biggest stage, registering three catches for 66 yards in a 42-14 victory over the Fighting Irish in the BCS National Championship Game ... all three catches converted first downs for Alabama and two were explosive plays of 15-yards or more, including a long of 29 yards ... in his two national title game appearances, Norwood has caught seven passes for 144 yards.

2011 (Sophomore):

A regular in the rotation at wide receiver ... played in 11 games and finished with 11 receptions for 190 yards ... 10 of his 11 catches converted first downs for the Alabama offense ... had a breakout game in the BCS National Championship Game with four grabs for 78 yards. Kent State: Caught one pass for five yards. Penn State: Once again turned in an impressive performance against the No. 23 Nittany Lions ... had three catches that all went for first downs ... accounted for 30 receiving yards in 2011 after hauling in his first touchdown a year ago in Tuscaloosa against PSU. North Texas: Sat out due to injury. Mississippi State: Was named one of the Offensive Players of the Week by the Alabama coaching staff ... hauled in two passes for a career-high 60 yards with a long reception of 38 yards. Georgia Southern: Caught one pass for 22 yards. LSU (BCS National Championship Game): Produced a career game against the Tigers with four receptions for 78 yards ... both totals were then-career bests ... all four catches went for Alabama first downs.

2010 (Redshirt Freshman):

Played in 12 games and hauled in three catches for 56 yards and a touchdown. San Jose State: Came off the bench but did not record any statistics. Penn State: Hauled in his first career catch which went for a 36-yard touchdown against the No. 18 Nittany Lions. Geno SMITH

Defensive Back

6-0 • 186 • Soph. • 1L

Atlanta, Ga.

St. Pius X

Outlook:

Geno Smith played an ever-increasing role for the Alabama defense as a true freshman in 2012 ... as his grasp of the defense improved, his opportunities grew as well, playing in 13 games and making two starts as the nickel cornerback late in the season ... primed for an opportunity to compete for the departed Dee Milliner's job at cornerback in 2013.

2012 (Freshman):

Played in 13 games and earned two starts as a true freshman, recorded nine tackles with four solo stops ... also broke up two passes. Arkansas: Recorded two solo tackles against the Razorbacks. Florida Atlantic: Assisted on two tackles in win over the Owls. Tennessee: Assisted on one tackle in the victory against the Vols. Mississippi State: Assisted on one tackle in the win against the Bulldogs. Western Carolina: Assisted on one stop in the shutout. Auburn: Assisted on a two-yard tackle for loss in the shutout win in the Iron Bowl shutout win. Georgia: Broke up a pass as starter in the SEC Championship Game. Notre Dame: Came off the bench to made one solo stop.

NICK

SABAN

A MAN OF VISION WHO HAS A PROVEN RECORD OF CHAMPIONSHIP SUCCESS, HEAD COACH NICK SABAN HAS RETURNED THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA TO THE TOP OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL LANDSCAPE WITH HIS COMMITMENT TO BUILDING THE TOTAL PROGRAM. AFTER THE MOST RECENT VICTORY OVER NOTRE DAME IN THE BCS NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME ON JANUARY 7, 2013, SABAN JOINED FRANK LEAHY, BEAR BRYANT AND JOHN MCKAY AS THE ONLY COACHES TO WIN FOUR NATIONAL TITLES IN THE MODERN ERA.

Entering his seventh season in Tuscaloosa, Saban's uncompromising dedication to excellence in every phase of the program has resulted in the school's 13th, 14th and 15th National Championships and the foundation has been set to yield long-term success for the Crimson Tide. A five-time National Coach of the Year, Saban has achieved resounding success as a head coach and has earned a reputation as an outstanding tactician, leader, organizer and motivator. Those qualities have sparked impressive turnarounds at every stop of his career. Saban's consistent approach and disciplined leadership are the reasons his teams are known for exhibiting grit, determination and resilience, often overcoming adversity to achieve victory.

COACH SABAN

Saban has compiled a 154-55-1 (.737) record as a college head coach and has gone 61-7 (.897) in the past five seasons in Tuscaloosa, which includes a 35-5 mark in regular-season conference play. In 2012, the Tide reached the 10-win milestone for the fifth consecutive season under Saban. With another SEC Championship win and BCS National Championship Game victory last season, Saban is now 8-1 all-time in conference or national championship games.

Alabama remained at the forefront of the college football world in 2012 with an explosive offense and a retooled defense that maintained its place as the most dominant units in the nation. The Crimson Tide won the program's 23rd SEC Championship (the most in league history) with a victory over Georgia that propelled Alabama into the 2013 Discover BCS National Championship Game, where they soundly defeated Notre Dame by a score of 42-14 to record the school's 15th national title. For his efforts following the season, Saban was named the Bobby Bowden National Coach of the Year.

The Alabama defense lead the nation in rush defense (76.36 ypg), total defense (250.0 ypg), and scoring defense (10.93 ppg) in 2012. The Tide offense ranked 12th nationally in scoring at 38.71 points per game and 16th nationally in rushing at 227.5 yards per game. The Crimson Tide set a school record with 542 points scored in 2012. In addition, Alabama extended a streak of consecutive weeks in the AP Top 25 to 81 weeks, the longest in school history.

The Crimson Tide featured four first-team All-Americans in 2012, including two along the offensive line in center Barrett Jones and left guard Chance Warmack. A pair of defensive standouts also earned All-America honors in cornerback Dee Milliner and linebacker C.J. Mosley. Jones captured the Rimington Trophy, which goes to the nation's best center, and the prestigious Campbell Award, given to the student-athlete that best combines performances on the field, success in the classroom and service away from the field. The 2012 senior class set the school and SEC record for wins while garnering a 49-5 record since 2009, a mark that tied Nebraska's 49 wins from 1994-97. It also broke the Cornhuskers record (60 wins from 1993-97) for the most in major college football victories five-year period with 61 (2008-12).

The 2011 squad produced one of the most dominant defenses in the history of college football and captured Alabama's 14th national championship with a 21-0 victory over LSU in the BCS National Championship Game. The Tide defense led the nation in all major categories, becoming the second team since national statistics began being kept and the first since 1986 (Oklahoma) to accomplish this feat. Alabama allowed only 8.2 points per game, 183.6 total yards, 72.2 rushing yards, 111.5 passing yards and a 83.7 pass efficiency defense. Alabama finished with a 12-1 record.

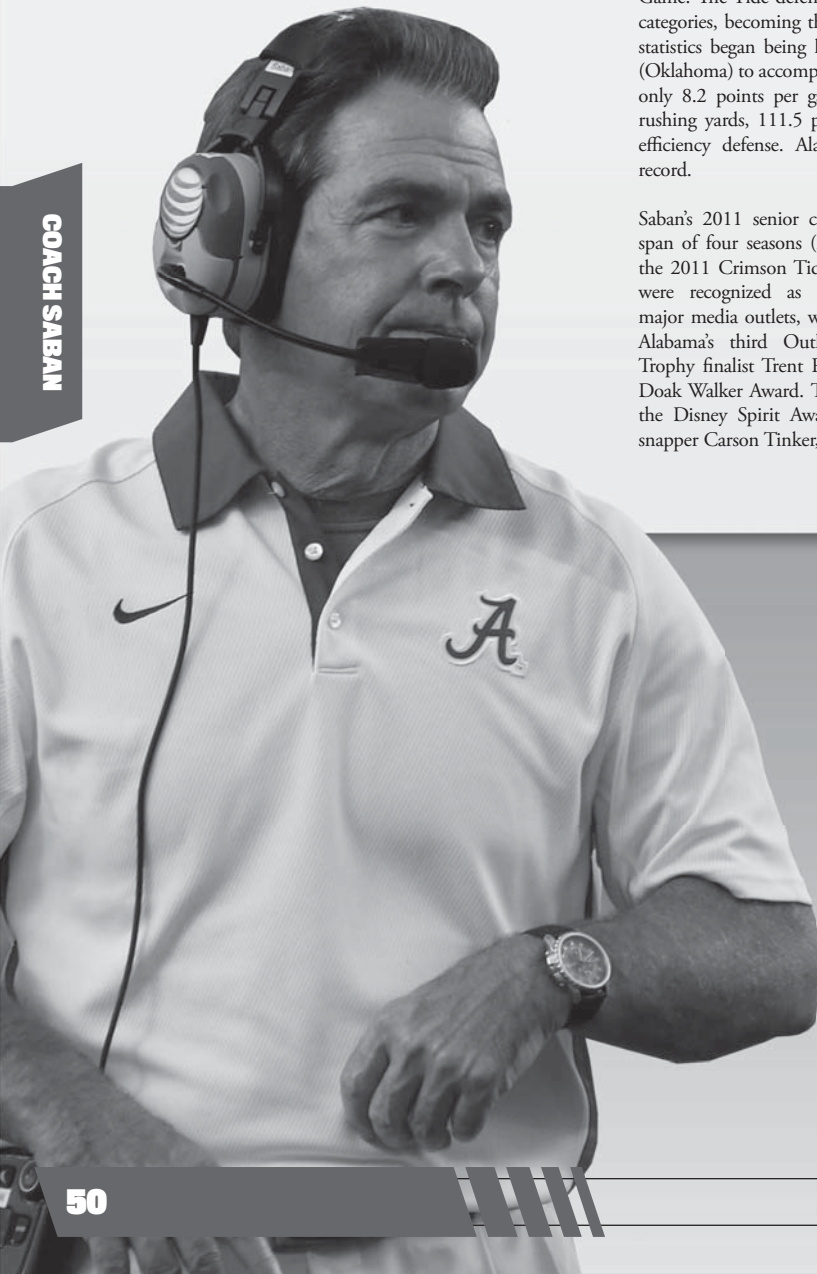

Saban's 2011 senior class won 48 games over the span of four seasons (2008-11). Seven members of the 2011 Crimson Tide (including five on defense) were recognized as first-team All-Americans by major media outlets, while Barrett Jones took home Alabama's third Outland Trophy and Heisman Trophy finalist Trent Richardson received UA's first Doak Walker Award. The team was recognized with the Disney Spirit Award, which was presented to snapper Carson Tinker, for the team's response to the community following the tornado that devastated Tuscaloosa on April 27, 2011. Jones also captured the ARA Sportsmanship Award and the Wuerffel Trophy. Saban's efforts also earned him the Bobby Bowden National Coach of the Year Award, the second such honor in the past three years. The Tide also had extensive success in the classroom with 38 SEC Academic Honor Roll selections (a league record) and produced an Academic All-American in Jones.

Despite a young roster that listed only eight scholarship seniors, the 2010 Alabama team finished with its third consecutive 10-win season following a dominant 49-7 win over Michigan State in the Capital One Bowl. Five players were named first team All-SEC by either the AP or the league coaches, while six more earned second team All-SEC honors. Most impressively, two players (quarterback Greg McElroy and Barrett Jones) were named first-team CoSIDA/ESPN Academic All-Americans, which marked two consecutive years in which Alabama boasted two of the three ESPN Academic All-Americans in the SEC. McElroy, the ESPN Academic All-American of the Year, was named a National Football Foundation National-Scholar-Athlete as a finalist for the Campbell Trophy.

The 2009 season at Alabama turned out to be one of the most memorable in program history as the Tide compiled a perfect 14-0 mark and won the 2009 BCS National Championship by defeating Texas by a score of 37-21 at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif. Alabama earned a spot in the title game with a resounding 32-13 win over defending national champion Florida in the SEC Championship Game as the Tide moved to No. 1 in both major polls. The SEC championship was the program's 22nd.

On December 12, 2009, more history was made for both Alabama and Saban when running back Mark Ingram became the first Heisman Trophy winner for both. Saban's 2009 squad also was prominent when it came to other honors, as Rolando McClain received the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker and six players earned first-team AP All-America status — a college football record.

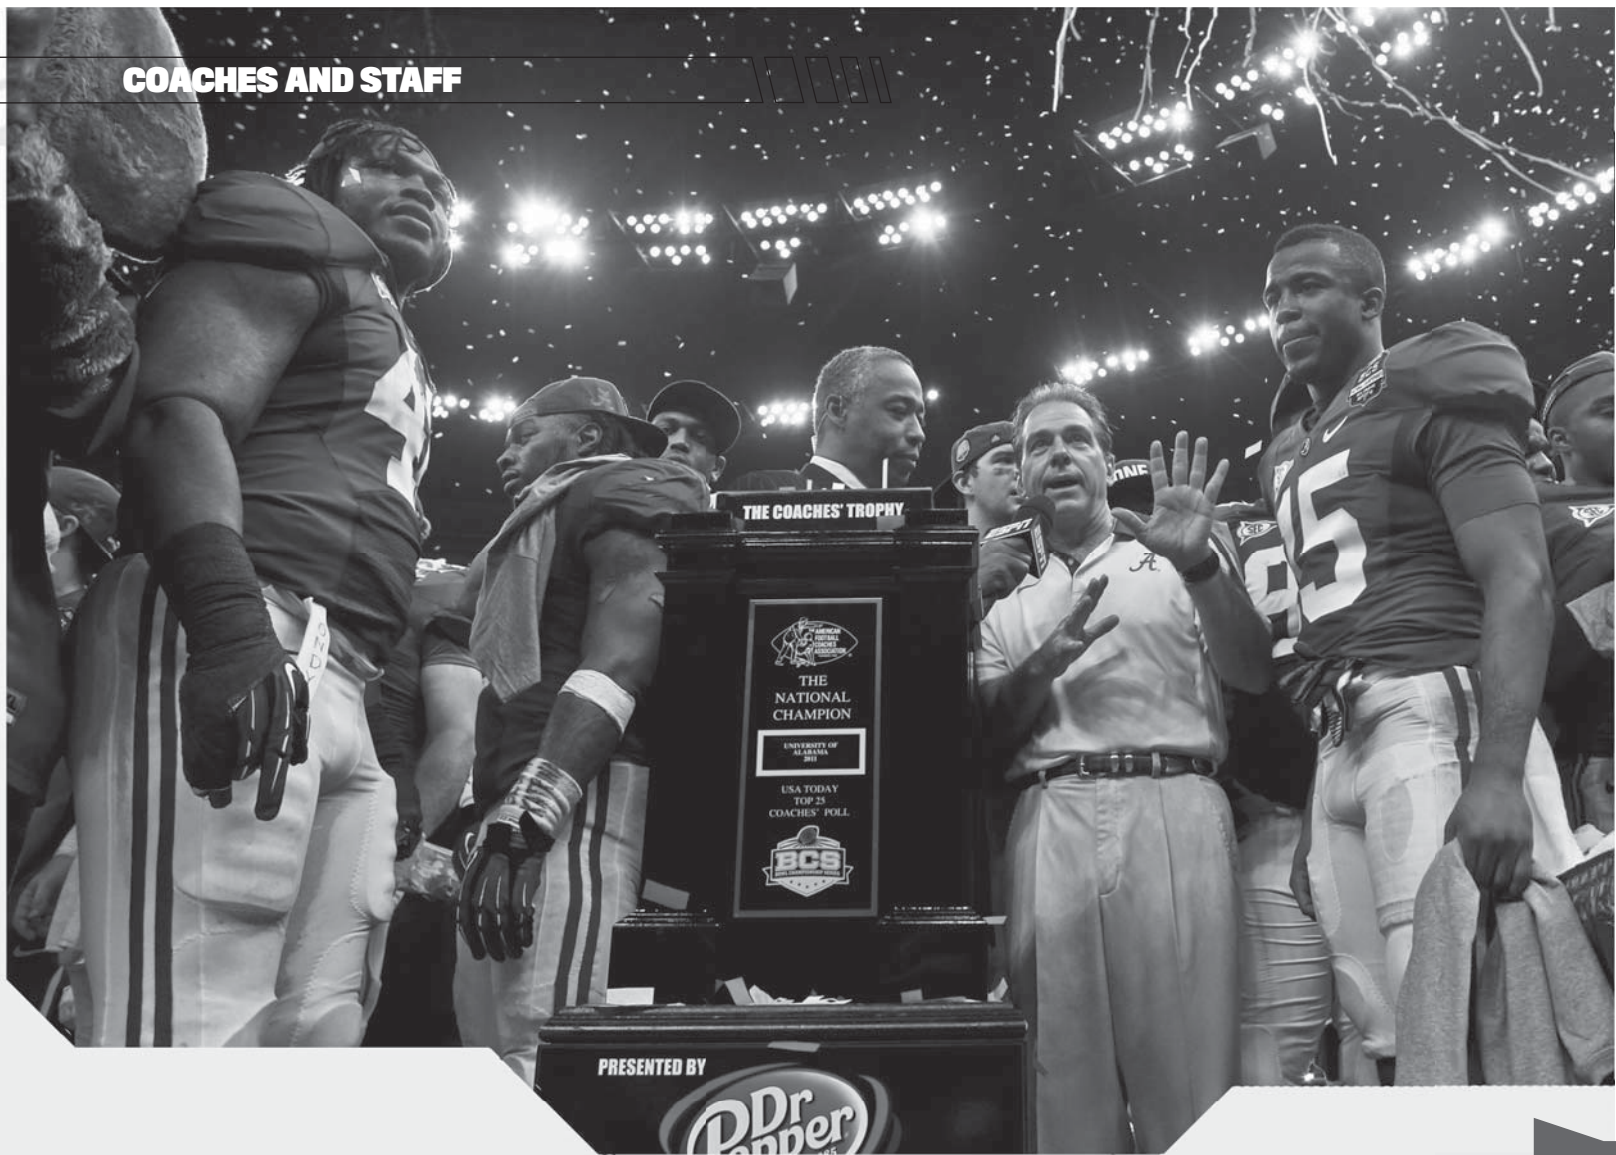

AMONG THE BEST EVER

Only four coaches in the modern poll era of college football have won four National Championships during their careers.

Coach	School	Championship Years
Nick Saban	LSU & Alabama	2004, 2009, 2011-12
Paul "Bear" Bryant	Alabama	1961, 1964-65, 1973, 1978-79
Frank Leahy	Notre Dame	1943, 1946-47, 1949
John McKay	Southern California	1962, 1967, 1972, 1974

After the perfect season concluded, Saban was presented with the first Bobby Bowden National Coach of the Year Award. In addition to the on-field success, the 2009 Tide active roster featured a nation's-best 13 players who already had graduated. That number increased to 22 players with degrees for the bowl game.

Saban's first UA team finished 7-6 in 2007, but the 2008 season saw a vastly improved Alabama squad take the field. Saban's influence had taken hold in Tuscaloosa and – behind a small and united senior class along with a talented group of newcomers – the Tide returned to national prominence. Alabama developed a reputation as the most physical football team in the country and methodically dominated the competition. Saban produced the largest win increase from year one to year two in school history, as the Tide went from a seven-win team in 2007 to 12 wins in 2008.

Alabama swept through the regular season schedule with a 12-0 record, moving to No. 1 in all of the polls and capturing the SEC Western Division Championship before falling late to Florida in a hard-fought SEC Championship Game. The team's efforts earned them a trip to the Allstate Sugar Bowl for the 13th time in school history. Saban was named the 2008 Home Depot Coach of the Year at the ESPN Awards Show in Orlando and won several other national coach-of-the-year honors including the FWAA/Eddie Robinson, Associated Press, The Sporting News, Walter Camp Football Foundation, and Liberty Mutual. Lessons learned from the 2007 season – which was capped with a win over Colorado in the Independence Bowl – no doubt carried into spring and summer preparations for the 2008 run. The win also continued an impressive streak for Saban as he has never had a losing season as a college head coach. Of the six losses in 2007, none was by more than seven points. In addition to an improvement in the win-loss column from the year prior, the 2008 signing class was rated by many analysts as the best in the country.

Off the field, the focus on academics by Saban and his staff made an immediate impact as the 2007 team put together one of the finest academic fall semesters in school history. The freshman class set a solid foundation for their future at UA as they led the way with an impressive combined GPA of 3.10 in the fall.

Before arriving in Tuscaloosa, Saban's most recent college head coaching stint was a five-season run at LSU which produced a record of 48-16 (.750), one national championship (2003), two Southeastern Conference championships, three SEC West Division championships, and a 3-2 record in bowl games, including two Sugar Bowl victories and a Peach Bowl win. The Tigers constructed a 28-12 (.700) record against SEC opponents under Saban's guidance. He was named the 2003 National Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and earned both the Paul W. "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year Award and the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award by the Football Writers Association of America. Saban was named SEC Coach of the Year twice (by The Birmingham News in 2001 and by the Associated Press in 2003) while at LSU.

COACH SABAN

Saban took over the Alabama program after serving two seasons at the helm of the Miami Dolphins. Saban's teams showed marked improvement over the unit he inherited. Taking over a team that finished 4-12 in 2004, Saban led the 2005 Dolphins to a 9-7 record, the third-biggest turnaround in the NFL that season and the second-highest victory turnaround for a Dolphins team in any non-strike season. Most impressively, the Dolphins finished 2005 on a six-game winning streak to end the year, the longest streak in the NFL that season.

Prior to his stint at Miami, Saban's impact on the LSU program transcended the success on the field. His commitment to building the total program, placing education first and instilling discipline with responsibility on and off the field transformed the Tigers into a force on the national stage. LSU produced 84 Academic all-SEC honorees in Saban's five seasons, including 25 members of the 2003 National Championship squad. LSU's graduation rate for football players improved dramatically under his watch and two players – offensive tackle Rodney Reed (2002 and 2003) and offensive lineman Rudy Niswanger (2004) – earned first-team Academic All-America honors. Linebacker Bradie James earned a postgraduate scholarship from the National Football Foundation (2003).

Saban also spearheaded a $15 million fundraising effort to fund a new academic center for student-athletes at LSU, and he and his players were active in community involvement in the Baton Rouge area, taking part in community service projects, visiting schools to mentor children, and taking time to visit local hospitals on a regular basis. More than 50 of Saban's LSU players earned their college degrees, in addition to 28 who were selected in the NFL draft (including seven in both 2004 and 2006).

Named head coach at LSU on Nov. 30, 1999, he led an immediate turnaround of a program that had suffered through seven losing seasons during the 1990s. His 48 victories over five seasons were the third-most among Division I-A head coaches during that time. Saban, Paul Dietzel and current LSU head coach Les Miles are the only coaches in the program's history to post multiple 10-win seasons. Saban, Dietzel and Bernie Moore are the only head coaches in Tiger history to win two SEC championships.

Saban's 2000 Tigers rebounded from two straight seasons to post an 8-4 record, capped by a 31-20 win over 15th-ranked Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl. Home victories over Tennessee, Mississippi State and Alabama highlighted the season, along with a key road win at Mississippi.

The 2001 Tigers improved to 10-3 overall and won the program's first outright SEC title since 1986 with a 31-20 win over second-ranked Tennessee in the SEC Championship game. An impressive second half against the Volunteers was a trademark of Saban's coaching acumen, as the Tigers outscored the Vols 21-3 in the final half to erase a 17-10 deficit. LSU won the game despite the absence of starting quarterback Rohan Davey and running back LaBrandon Toefield.

Sparked by one of the most prolific offenses in the nation, a unit that averaged 451.5 yards per game, the Tigers capped the season with a 47-34 defeat of Big Ten champion Illinois in the Sugar Bowl, LSU's first victory in a New Year's Day bowl game since 1968.

Stifling defense was the trademark of the 2002 Tigers. LSU posted an 8-5 record and a second consecutive New Year's Day bowl appearance. The Tigers, who faced Texas in the Cotton Bowl, held opponents to under 275 yards per game through the season's first six games and scored a school-record 30 or more points in six straight games. LSU just missed winning a second consecutive SEC West title, as a last-minute comeback by Arkansas in the regular-season finale prevented LSU from another appearance in the SEC Championship Game. That LSU team overcame the mid-season loss of starting quarterback Matt Mauck, free safety Damien James and Toefield in successive weeks to make a run at an SEC Western Division title.

Saban's philosophy of "out of yourself and into the team" paid huge dividends in 2003. The Tigers produced a 13-1 record, won their second SEC championship and earned the school's second national championship with a squad that was among the nation's most dominant on both sides of the line of scrimmage. The LSU offense scored a school-record 475 points (33.9 per game) while holding 13 of 14 opponents to fewer than 20 points. LSU's defense ranked first nationally in points allowed per game (11.0) and total defense (252.0 yards per game). After a 7-1 start, LSU ended the season with six dominating victories by an average margin of 35-10. An impressive 34-13 victory over Georgia in the SEC title game paved LSU's way to an appearance in the Bowl Championship Series (BCS) Championship Game against top-ranked Oklahoma. The Tigers produced a dominant defensive effort against the Sooners in the Sugar Bowl, limiting the Sooners to 154 yards of total offense in a 21-14 victory.

His final LSU team in 2004 overcame the loss of 13 players from the 2003 squad who went on to NFL rosters, posting a 9-3 record while producing the SEC's best rushing offense (200.7 yards per game). The Tiger defense ranked third nationally during the regular season in total defense (249.9 yards per game) and passing defense (145.4 yards per game), allowing only 15.9 points per contest.

Over the last six games, the LSU defense allowed only 12 points in the second half on the way to a berth in the Capital One Bowl against Iowa – LSU's fourth consecutive January bowl berth. That marked a first for the Tiger program.

Saban served as head coach at Michigan State from 1995-99, his second stint at the East Lansing school as he also spent 1983-87 as the Spartans' defensive coordinator/secondary coach. After playing in only one bowl game in the previous four years, Michigan State made four postseason appearances in Saban's five years at the helm. Saban led MSU to a 34-24-1 (.585) record.

In 1999, Saban led his final Spartans team to a No. 7 national ranking, finishing in a tie for second place in the Big Ten. The Spartans defeated Notre Dame, Michigan, Ohio State and Penn State in the same year for the first time since 1965 and recorded six wins at home for the first time since the 1912 season. The Spartans' performance that year landed them a spot in the Citrus Bowl. The Spartans led the Big Ten in rushing defense (77.0 ypg) and total defense (299.0 ypg) while ranking fifth nationally in rushing defense and 11th in total defense. The MSU offense averaged 31.0 points per game.

Saban was the first coach in school history to put the Spartans in postseason bowl games in each of his first three seasons – as he led the Spartans to the Independence Bowl in 1995, the Sun Bowl in 1996 and the Aloha Bowl in 1997.

"I THINK EVERYBODY SHOULD TAKE THE ATTITUDE THAT WE'RE WORKING TO BE A CHAMPION, THAT WE WANT TO BE A CHAMPION IN EVERYTHING THAT WE DO. EVERY CHOICE, EVERY DECISION, EVERYTHING THAT WE DO EVERY DAY, WE WANT TO BE A CHAMPION."

At Michigan State, the Sabans started the Nick's Kids Fund, which they have continued in Tuscaloosa, a vibrant example of their continuing concern for disadvantaged children. Since Nick and Terry arrived in Tuscaloosa, more than $2.5 million has been distributed to more than 150 charities through the Nick's Kids Fund. The Sabans also built 14 homes with Project Team Up and Habitat for Humanity following the April 27, 2011, tornado that struck Tuscaloosa. In receiving the 2008 Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award, Saban was awarded a $50,000 gift at the A-Day Game. He designated the gift for Nick's Kids, as well as an additional $20,000 gift for the University of Alabama scholarship fund. In June of 2008, the Sabans announced a $1 million gift to benefit Alabama's first-generation scholarship program. The gift has a special meaning to the Sabans as both Nick and Terry were first-generation graduates.

The Sabans also have played a big role in tornado relief efforts in Tuscaloosa and the surrounding areas. Immediately following the devastating storm, Nick and Terry visited shelters, where they paid for and served meals to those in need. Through Nick's Kids, the Sabans have joined with Project Team Up in helping to rebuild homes lost in the tornado.

COACH SABAN

Before Michigan State, Saban spent four seasons (1991-94) as defensive coordinator with the Cleveland Browns under head coach Bill Belichick. The Browns went from allowing the most points (462) in the NFL prior to Saban's arrival to allowing the fewest points (204) in the league in 1994, the sixth-fewest points surrendered in NFL history at the time. In each of Saban's four years guiding the Browns defense, they never permitted an average of more than 19.2 points per game. He built a reputation as one of the finest defensive coaches in the league and also was heavily involved in the team's player personnel and scouting process.

Saban's first head coaching position came at the University of Toledo in 1990, as he guided the Rockets to a record of 9-2 that year, finishing as co-champions of the Mid-American Conference. The Rockets ranked among the NCAA leaders in both total defense (12th at 284.8 yards) and scoring defense (16th at 16.2 points), and missed posting an undefeated record by a mere five points.

Saban joined Toledo after serving as secondary coach with the Houston Oilers for two seasons under Jerry Glanville (1988-89), his first NFL coaching position. He quickly made an impact on the Oilers defense, as the team's secondary tied for fourth in the AFC in 1988 with 21 interceptions and then tied for second in the conference in 1989 with 22.

In his first stint at Michigan State, Saban served as secondary coach and defensive coordinator under George Perles from 1983-87. Saban played an integral part in helping the Spartans make three postseason bowl appearances, including a Big Ten championship in 1987 and a 20-17 victory over Southern California in the 1988 Rose Bowl. Michigan State led the nation in rushing defense in 1987, allowing only 61.2 yards per game, and ranked second in scoring defense, permitting only 12.4 points per game.

A native of Fairmont, W.Va., Saban is a 1973 graduate of Kent State University where he earned a bachelor's degree in business. He earned a master's degree in sports administration from Kent State in 1975. Born Oct. 31, 1951, Saban and his wife, the former Terry Constable, have two children, Nicholas and Kristen.

Saban co-authored Tiger Turnaround in 2001, a book documenting his first two years as head coach at LSU, and co-authored How Good Do You Want to Be? in 2005, a book that offers real-life principles for success at work and at home.

In addition to their work as fundraisers for LSU's Student-Athlete Academic Center, the Sabans supported several charitable and civic projects in Louisiana. The largest of those efforts was with the Children's Miracle Network, for which Terry and Nick raised more than $100,000 per year.

COACH SABAN

"When we travel throughout the state we recognize names and faces who share the same goal - to make the University of Alabama the very best it can be in every regard - on the field, in the classroom and in the eyes of the nation one day at a time. Thank you to all of the supporters and the University of Alabama community. Roll Tide!"

- TERRY SABAN

Terry Saban plays a vital role in many community outreach programs. She personally collected money on the Quad before 2007's A-Day game for the Enterprise tornado relief fund. Prior to the 2008 A-Day game, Terry helped collect money for the university's libraries. In June of 2008, Nick and Terry pledged $1 million to the university's scholarship fund and earmarked it for first-generation college students. Terry also plays an important role in the planning of many of the events for causes including the Nick's Kids Fund. Her eagerness to give back and her tireless devotion to help others is what makes Terry Saban one of the most admired members of the Crimson Tide family.

Most recently, Terry has been involved with Project Team Up in assisting with the rebuilding process from the tornado.

Secondary

First Year

Greg BROWN

UTEP, 1980

Greg Brown joined the Alabama coaching staff in January of 2013 after spending the past two seasons as the defensive coordinator at Colorado. A 15-year NFL coaching veteran, Brown will coach the secondary for the Crimson Tide.

Brown spent the 2011 and 2012 seasons as the defensive coordinator at the University of Colorado, his third-coaching stint with the Buffalos. He led a young and inexperienced CU defense that showed improvement during his tenure, but was plagued with injuries that forced him to play converted receivers and walk-ons.

He spent the 2010 season as the co-defensive coordinator at the University of Arizona, helping return the Wildcats to the nation's Top 25 for the first time in over a decade. Brown returned to CU in January 2006, named to the staff of Colorado head coach Dan Hawkins following the completion of the 2005 National Football League season. From 2006-09 Brown served as Colorado's secondary coach and the last three as defensive passing-game coordinator.

In his four seasons during his second stint at Colorado, he helped tutor Terrence Wheatley, coaching him to first-team All-Big 12 honors and a second round NFL draft pick by the New England Patriots. He also tutored a pair of young cornerbacks in Jimmy Smith and Jalil Brown, the former a two-time All-Big 12 performer.

In 2005, he wrapped up his fourth and final year as a defensive assistant with the NFL's New Orleans Saints under coach Jim Haslett. In that 2005 season, the Saints' pass defense ranked third in the entire NFL, allowing a paltry 178 yards per game.

He rejoined the Atlanta Falcons as secondary coach for the 2000 and 2001 seasons after spending the 1999 campaign as the defensive backs coach for the San Francisco 49ers. A 15-year NFL coaching veteran, developing top notch defensive backs became his specialty as he was often sought after for new coaching staffs around the league, working with six different teams in his professional career.

He spent the 1995-96 seasons as the secondary coach for San Diego, with the Chargers finishing in the top five both years in fewest yards allowed per completion. He also coached Rodney Harrison, who eventually would become one of the league's top safeties. He moved on to the Tennessee Oilers, coaching the secondary in both 1997 and 1998; he again coached three of the top defensive backs in the game, cornerback Samari Rolle and safeties Blaine Bishop and All-Pro Marcus Robertson.

He coached the secondary for three years (1991-93) at Colorado under coach Bill McCartney, tutoring a pair of Jim Thorpe Award winners during his first days at CU: cornerbacks Deon Figures (the 1992 winner) and Chris Hudson (the '94 winner). Colorado led the nation in pass completion defense and the Big Eight in pass defense in 1992. He joined the CU staff days after the Buffs won their first national championship (January 7, 1991), and returned to the NFL in 1994, joining the Atlanta staff as defensive backs coach; the Falcons finished second that season in the league with 23 interceptions.

He began his coaching career in 1981 as a graduate assistant at the University of Texas-El Paso, his alma mater, where he worked with the secondary. The following year, 1982, he came back to Colorado, working that fall as a defensive coach at Green Mountain High School in Lakewood.

He made his first move to the professional ranks the following spring, joining the staff of the Denver Gold of the United States Football League (USFL). He coached the secondary for the Gold for two seasons (1983, 1984) before moving on to the National Football League for the first time in the summer of 1984, joining the Tampa Bay Buccaneers staff. For the Bucs, he coached three different positions: defensive quality control (1984), offensive quality control (1985) and the U-backs/tight ends (1986).

Brown returned to the college game in 1987, coaching the defensive backs for two seasons at the University of Wyoming before doing the same at Purdue University for the 1989 and 1990 campaigns. He then returned home to Colorado for a second time in joining McCartney's staff in 1991.

He graduated from the UTEP in 1980 with a bachelor's degree in education (history/physical education). At UTEP, he lettered twice at cornerback under Bill Michael, and received the Coca-Cola Hold Helmet Award for his play against San Diego State in September 1979. He earned his A.A. degree from Glendale (Ariz.) Junior College in 1978.

Brown graduated from Arvada (Colo.) High School, where he lettered in both football and track. His father, Irv, is a long-time Denver radio personality and the former head baseball coach and one-time assistant football coach at the University of Colorado. He is married to the former Stacie Bible, and the couple has two daughters (Hannah and Grace).

Associate Head Coach/RB

Seventh Year

BURTON BURNS

Nebraska, 1976

Burton Burns is in his seventh season with the Alabama Crimson Tide football program in 2012 as associate head coach and running backs coach. The New Orleans native is regarded as one of the best coaches in college football and was named the Football Scoop Running Backs Coach of the Year following the 2008 season.

Over 15 seasons as a college assistant coach, Burns has produced versatile running backs that have been effective in every phase of the game. His players have proven to be equally effective on the ground and in the passing game. Few in college football can say they have coached a Heisman Trophy finalist, but Burns can claim a pair dating back to the 2009 season, including the 2009 recipient Mark Ingram and 2011 finalist Trent Richardson.

Burns turned in another masterful coaching job in 2012. As injuries hammered away at the Tide's depth at running back, junior Eddie Lacy and true freshman T.J. Yeldon stepped to the forefront and combined to rush for 2,430 yards and 29 rushing touchdowns (32 total touchdowns). The pair became the first Alabama running backs to rush for more than 1,000 yards in the same season. UA ranked 16th nationally in rushing and second in the SEC with an average of 227.5 yards per game.

Under Burns, the 2011 Crimson Tide rushing offense ranked 16th in the nation, and first in the Southeastern Conference, collecting 214.5 yards per game. In addition to being a Heisman Trophy finalist, Richardson became the first Alabama player to win the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back. He was named the SEC Offensive Player of the Year, ranking fifth in the nation and first in the league with 129.2 yards on the ground per game. He collected 21 rushing touchdowns, setting the school record and tying him for second in SEC history. He equaled the school and SEC record with 24 total touchdowns. Lacy, finished the 2011 season ninth in the SEC with 56.2 rushing yards per game and seven TDs.

In 2010, Alabama's ground game accumulated 2,378 yards to rank 29th in the country. Playing in only 11 games each, Ingram led the way with 875 yards and 13 scores followed by Richardson's 700 yards with six touchdowns. With two scores against Michigan State in the Capital One Bowl, Ingram set the Alabama career rushing touchdown record at 42. He finished his career fourth on the career rushing yardage list with 3,261 yards in three seasons. Both Ingram and Richardson were explosive in the passing game as well. Richardson was fourth on the 2011 team with 266 yards on 23 catches (4 TDs), while Ingram added 21 catches for 282 yards and a touchdown.

Under Burns' guidance in 2009, Ingram was awarded Alabama's first Heisman Trophy and earned unanimous All-America honors. Ingram set the school's single-season rushing record with 1,658 yards and 17 touchdowns while adding 32 receptions for 334 yards and three scores. Richardson, a true freshman, was the team's second-leading rusher (642 yards, 6 TD) and was a Freshman All-SEC selection. In the BCS Championship Game against Texas, Ingram and Richardson both rushed for 100-plus yards to help lead Alabama to the school's 13th title.

Roy Upchurch added valuable production in 2009, especially on third downs. He earned an invite to the prestigious Senior Bowl at the conclusion of the season.

Burns also developed one of the nation's strongest running games in 2008 as Alabama finished third in the SEC and 30th nationally with an average of 184.6 rushing yards per game. Glen Coffee, a first-team All-SEC selection and third-round draft pick of the San Francisco 49ers, led the way with 1,383 yards on the ground. That single-season total then tied for second in school history and was third in the conference. Ingram was eighth in the SEC in rushing (728 yards), captured Freshman All-SEC honors and set a Tide rookie record with 12 rushing scores.

In his first year at Alabama (2007), Burns helped first-year tailback Terry Grant set school records for rushing yards (891) and touchdowns (8) by a freshman. Grant was a three-time SEC Freshman of the Week honoree and was named to the Freshman All-SEC Team as well as Sporting News Freshman All-American team (honorable mention).

An assistant coach at Clemson University for eight seasons before coming to Alabama, Burns was a major factor in producing six of the top 10 offenses in Clemson history as running backs coach for the Tigers. Burns tutored star runners such as 2005 ACC Rookie of the Year James Davis, 2006 freshman record-setter C.J. Spiller, Reggie Merriweather, Travis Zachery and Duane Coleman at Clemson, plus former New York Jet Jerald Sowell at Tulane. In 2006, Davis led the Tigers with 1,187 rushing yards on 203 carries and scored 17 touchdowns, while Spiller had 938 rushing yards and 10 touchdowns. The Tigers averaged 5.7 yards per carry during the 2006 regular season.

Burns spent eight seasons with head coach Tommy Bowden at Clemson, after a four-year stint at Tulane that concluded with a 12-0 season in 1998.

Burns spent nine seasons as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Saint Augustine High School in New Orleans before joining Bowden's staff at Tulane. Burns helped lead Saint Augustine to district titles in 1987, 1992 and 1993, his second stint at the school. His first experience as a coach also was at Saint Augustine, where he served as an assistant from 1977-79 and helped the school win three other district championships on the way to consecutive state titles in 1978-79. Burns also coached at New Orleans' Booker T. Washington High School in 1980 before a five-year stint as an assistant coach at Southern University in Baton Rouge from 1981-85.

As a player, Burns played fullback (1971-75) at the University of Nebraska under head coach Tom Osborne. A member of three Cornhusker teams that won at least nine games, Burns participated in the Orange Bowl, Cotton Bowl and Sugar Bowl. He earned a bachelor's degree in education from Nebraska in 1976. Burns is married to the former Connie Winder. The couple has three daughters, Amber, Christy and Erin, and a son, Damon. They have one granddaughter, Mackenzie, and a son-in-law Sylvester Anderson.

Assistant Head Coach/OL

First Year

Mario CRISTOBAL

Miami (Fla.), 1993

Mario Cristobal begins his first season on the Alabama coaching staff as the assistant head coach and offensive line coach after joining the Crimson Tide in February of 2013. He had been the head coach at Florida International University for the past six years before joining Alabama after a brief stay at his alma mater, Miami, earlier this year.

During his six years at the helm of the FIU program, Cristobal was regarded as one of the country's top college football coaches and is the architect of a successful program that had been to back-to-back bowl games in 2010 and 2011. The 2011 season was the most successful years in program history with the school capturing a program-record eight victories during the regular season, along with milestone wins on the road at eventual Co-BIG EAST Champion Louisville and at home against Conference USA power Central Florida.

FIU began its historic run during the 2010 season, when Cristobal led FIU to its first Sun Belt Conference championship and bowl victory over MAC champion Toledo. For his efforts, he was named the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year. He was named the second head football coach in FIU history on December 19, 2006, Cristobal implemented his philosophy of hard work and dedication, which has paid quick dividends both on the field and in the classroom. During his time at FIU, Cristobal also proved to be an effective recruiter, with consecutive recruiting classes in 2011 and 2012 that were regarded among the best in the Sun Belt Conference.

Prior to accepting the head coaching job at FIU, Cristobal coached at the University of Miami for three years under former head coach Larry Coker. The Hurricanes compiled a 24-12 record in that time with appearances in the 2004 and 2005 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowls and the 2006 Micron PC Bowl. Cristobal coached Miami's tight ends in the 2004 and 2005 seasons, tutoring 2005 Buffalo Bills' third-round pick Kevin Everett, 2006 free-agent signee Buck Ortega and 2007 Chicago Bears' first-round selection Greg Olsen.

In 2006, Cristobal took over a Miami offensive line that featured four new starters, including a true sophomore at left tackle and a true freshman at right tackle. Despite coaching a unit wrought with inexperience and riddled by injuries throughout the season, the UM offense saw a 39 percent decrease in sacks allowed from 36 to 22, only seven of which Cristobal's line was deemed responsible. Following that season, junior guard Derrick Morse was selected honorable mention All-ACC and true freshman tackle Jason Fox was named a second-team Freshman All-American by Rivals.com.

While coaching at Rutgers from 2001-03 Cristobal helped set the table for one of the biggest success stories in the last 30 years of college football. Cristobal worked under head coach Greg Schiano, coaching the offensive tackles and tight ends for two seasons before shifting his focus solely to the offensive line in 2003.

Cristobal was a critical factor in Rutgers' resurgence to competitiveness and helped lay the foundation in recruiting and coaching for a program that went from obscurity to college football's upper echelon in a matter of five years. During Cristobal's tenure at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights improved from records of 2-9 and 1-11 to a 5-7 mark in 2003, the school's best record since 1998. One of Cristobal's brightest pupils was tight end L.J. Smith, the Philadelphia Eagles' second-round pick in the 2003 NFL Draft and current starter.

Cristobal began his coaching career in 1998, when he joined the Miami Hurricanes staff as a graduate assistant, working with the Hurricanes for three seasons (1998-2000) under head coach Butch Davis. He helped his alma mater to a 29-8 record, three bowl wins and a pair of BIG EAST Conference championships in that time.

Cristobal was a four-year letterwinner for the University of Miami from 1988-92, playing for Hall of Fame coach Jimmy Johnson and Dennis Erickson. During his four years at UM, the Hurricanes won a pair of National Championships (1989 and 1991) while playing in two Sugar Bowls, one Cotton Bowl and an Orange Bowl. Cristobal was a first team All-Big East selection as an offensive tackle in 1992.

Following his college playing career, Cristobal signed a free agent contract with the Denver Broncos in 1994. He played for the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe in 1995 and 1996.

The Miami native was a prep standout at Christopher Columbus High School. He graduated from Miami in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in business administration and later earned a master's degree from UM in 2001. Cristobal and his wife Jessica were married in June of 2006 and have two sons (Mario, Jr. and Rocco).

Wide Receivers

First Year

Billy NAPIER

Furman, 2003

Billy Napier returned to the Alabama coaching staff on March 1, 2013, as wide receivers coach. Napier joined the Crimson Tide staff after serving as the assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach at Colorado State in 2012 for former Tide offensive coordinator Jim McElwain.

Napier returned to the Capstone in March to replace Mike Groh, who took an assistant coaching job with the Chicago Bears.

Injuries forced Napier to go deep down the bench looking for quarterbacks during his one season in Fort Collins. The Rams saw three quarterbacks play significant snaps as the starter with Garrett Grayson going down early in the season, M.J. McPeck following two weeks later forcing redshirt freshman Conner Smith into action. The trio combined to throw for 2,520 yards and 17 touchdowns in 2012 as Colorado State won three of their final five games.

Napier spent the 2011 season on the Alabama staff as an offensive analyst, helping the Crimson Tide to the 2011 BCS National Championship. The Tide ranked 16th in scoring offense, 30th in total offense and 17th in rushing offense in 2011.

Prior to Alabama, Napier spent seven of the last eight years at Clemson. During Napier's final two seasons at Clemson, he earned an elevated position as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. At the age of 29, he became the youngest coordinator in Clemson history. In his first season as Clemson's coordinator in 2009, the Tigers scored a school-record 436 points. Additionally, Clemson scored 54 touchdowns (third-most in school history), averaged 5.73 yards per play (fourth-best) and finished the year as the ACC Atlantic Division champions. Quarterback Kyle Parker was named a Freshman All-American, and nine players Napier coached from 2009-10 went on to careers in the NFL.

From 2006-08, the assistant coach split his time as the team's recruiting coordinator. In those three seasons, he compiled two top-25 recruiting classes, according to Rivals.com, and in 2008, his class was tabbed as the second-best in the nation by ESPN.com. Known to his peers as a top recruiter, Napier has signed several players that went on to the NFL, including Kavell Conner, Crezdon Butler, Brandon Thompson and Marcus Gilchrist. Fourteen players from Clemson's 2011 two-deep were signed by Napier, including five who earned all-ACC honors.

Napier was the tight ends coach at Clemson for two seasons, helping lead the Tigers to two bowl games and a prolific offense. The 2007 season featured a 9-4 record and the ACC's highest scoring offense. In his first year back with Clemson, 2006, Napier worked primarily with the Tigers' tight ends, but was also responsible for the punt team, and assisted in several special-teams capacities. The Tigers led the ACC in total offense, rushing and scoring offense in 2006, advancing to the Music City Bowl. Clemson averaged 410.9 yards per game, in addition to 32.7 points, more than doubling its opponents totals. Tight end Hunter Thomas started all 11 games for the Tigers, averaging 19.1 yards per reception, and Michael Palmer, who Napier coached for three seasons, went on to the NFL. Also working with the special teams, he helped to develop one of the most talented players in Clemson history, C.J. Spiller.

In 2005, Napier spent one season as the quarterbacks coach at South Carolina State. The Bulldogs finished the year 9-2, and ranked among the nation's best in several offensive categories, including: rushing (12th), passing efficiency (15th) and scoring offense (17th). S.C. State also had the country's fourth-best turnover margin, committing just 11 turnovers, roughly one-third of the total from the previous season (32). Napier developed Cleve McCoy, S.C. State's first-year quarterback, and molded him into the MEAC Player of the Year. He also recruited OT Johnny Culbreath, who became a unanimous All-America selection, and was drafted by the Detroit Lions. Napier was offered the position of offensive coordinator after the 2005 season, but declined, instead taking over as the tight ends coach at Clemson.

Napier began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Clemson, from 2003-04. In 2003, the new coach worked with video coordinating. The Tigers won nine games, including the Peach Bowl against Tennessee. The following season, Napier was the on-field graduate assistant on defense, and off the field, got his first experience with recruiting.

As a player, Napier was a four-year letterwinner and two-time All-Southern Conference selection as the starting quarterback at Furman. The Paladins won two conference championships and in 2001, Napier's junior year, advanced to the Division I-AA national championship, where they lost to Montana, 13-6. He completed 64.8 percent of his career passes, which still stands as a school record. As the team captain during a record-setting senior season, Napier recorded 2,475 passing yards, also a Furman record, and was a finalist for the Walter Payton Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding offensive player.

Napier grew up in Chatsworth, Ga., and graduated from Murray County High School in 1998. Napier is married to the former Ali Gunn and couple has one daughter (Annie). He earned his bachelor's degree in health & exercise science from Furman in 2002.

Offensive Coordinator/QB

Second Year

Doug NUSSMEIER

Idaho, 1994

Doug Nussmeier begins his second season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Alabama after joining the Crimson Tide in February 2012 after three seasons at the University of Washington.

In this first year at the helm of the Alabama offense, the Crimson Tide produced one of the most proficient offensive seasons in school history. UA set records for rushing/passing touchdowns scored (68), total points (542), total offense (6,237) and passing touchdowns (31). His tutelage of quarterback AJ McCarron resulted in one of the best seasons by a quarterback in school history. McCarron set the record for single-season touchdowns (30), while throwing for 2,933 yards (second in school history) and completing 67.2 percent of his passes and throwing just three interceptions while leading the nation in passing efficiency (175.28). Nussmeier built a balanced offense that proved to be explosive at the same time. The Tide rushed for 3,185 yards while throwing for 3,052, becoming the first Alabama team to rush and pass for 3,000 yards in a single season while accounting for 134 plays of 15-yards or more (76 passing and 58 rushing).

Despite replacing a first-round pick at quarterback, Nussmeier's offense at Washington had a very successful campaign in 2011 and the unit improved statistically in each of his three seasons. Washington's offense scored 57 touchdowns and 434 points in 2011, the second-highest totals in school history (behind only the 1991 national championship team). The 2011 season marks for passing yards (3,322) and total offense (5,328) also were second in the UW record book. Nussmeier helped guide sophomore quarterback Keith Price to one of the top individual seasons at Washington. As the first-year starter, Price broke records for passing touchdowns (33), completion percentage (.669) and passing efficiency (161.9). That efficiency rating was seventh nationally and second in the Pac-12 behind only Andrew Luck of Stanford. The Huskies scored 30 or more points in nine of 13 games and also featured an outstanding ground game led by Chris Polk, who ranked 16th nationally with an average of 114.5 rushing yards per game.

In 2010, Nussmeier oversaw a balanced attack that finished the season with 2,238 rushing yards and 2,475 passing yards. The offense was led by Polk, whose 1,415 rushing yards were second-most in UW single-season history. Nussmeier also mentored quarterback Jake Locker, who finished his career ranked No. 1 or No. 2 in nearly every major quarterbacking category. Locker was the No. 8 overall pick in the 2011 NFL Draft by the Tennessee Titans.

In his first season at Washington, Nussmeier's offense made tremendous strides over the previous season. The Huskies scored 26.1 points per game, nearly doubling their average from the previous year while total offense was up more than 110 yards per game over the 2008 average. Nussmeier also spent his first season coaching Locker, who had one of the most productive seasons in Huskies history. Locker passed for 2,800 yards, the third-highest total in school history, while the offense boasted a 1,000-yard rusher in Polk.

Nussmeier came to the UW after one season as the offensive coordinator at Fresno State. He joined the Fresno State staff after spending two seasons as the quarterbacks coach for the St. Louis Rams on the staff of head coach Scott Linehan. Nussmeier coached Marc Bulger, who was named to his second Pro Bowl in 2006, finishing with 4,301 passing yards, 24 touchdowns and only eight interceptions.

Before his time with the Rams, Nussmeier was the quarterbacks coach at Michigan State for three seasons. In 2005, MSU quarterback Drew Stanton passed for a school-record 3,415 yards, breaking a record set by another Nussmeier pupil, Jeff Smoker, who threw for 3,395 yards in 2003. Smoker also set MSU records for completions (302) and passing touchdowns (21).

Nussmeier, who played in both the NFL and the Canadian Football League, began his coaching career in the CFL. In 2001, he was the quarterbacks coach for the British Columbia Lions and then served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Ottawa Renegades in 2002.

During his outstanding collegiate career at Idaho, Nussmeier passed for 10,824 yards and averaged 309.1 yards per game in total offense for his career. Along with Steve McNair, Daunte Culpepper and Colin Kaepernick, he is one of only four quarterbacks in NCAA history to total 10,000 yards passing and 1,000 yards rushing during his career. Nussmeier set Idaho school records for TD passes (91), passing efficiency (154.4), completion percentage (.609) and total offense (12,054 yards). In 1993, he won the Walter Payton Award, Division I-AA's version of the Heisman Trophy. That year, he led Idaho to an 11-3 record and set a school record with 33 TD passes. He also was the Big Sky Offensive Player of the Year in 1992, when the Vandals went 9-3 and won the conference crown. Nussmeier was inducted into the University of Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008.

In 1994, Nussmeier was drafted in the fourth round by the New Orleans Saints. He played four years (1994-97) with the Saints and one with the Indianapolis Colts (1998). In 2000, he helped the BC Lions win the Grey Cup Championship.

The Oswego, Ore., native attended Lakeridge High School and earned his bachelor's degree in business and marketing from Idaho in 1994. He and his wife Christi have two sons (Garrett and Colton) and a daughter (Ashlynn).

Defensive Line

Third Year

Chris RUMPH

South Carolina, 1994

Chris Rumph is in his third season on the defensive coaching staff for the Alabama Crimson Tide. Rumph, a four-year letterman during his playing days at South Carolina, joined Alabama's staff in January of 2011 after five years as the defensive ends coach at Clemson.

Rumph's 2012 deep and talented defensive line was a key element in Alabama's defensive efforts. The Crimson Tide led the nation in rush defense, allowing only 76.4 yards per game while also leading the country in total defense at 250.0 yards per game.

Senior defensive end Damion Square, senior nose guard Jesse Williams and junior end Ed Stinson anchored the group. Square finished 33 tackles, four tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks and a team-high nine quarterback hurries. Williams added 37 stops with 2.5 tackles for loss and four hurries, while Stinson registered three sacks, 8.5 tackles for loss and 30 total stops.

The defensive line was stellar in 2011 helping the Crimson Tide rank No. 1 nationally in rushing defense, allowing just 72.2 yards per game.

Josh Chapman anchored the 2011 line from his nose guard position, earning second-team All-SEC honors, despite playing the second half of the season with a torn ACL. In 2011, Chapman collected 23 total tackles, including 3.5 for loss, one sack and a pair of pass breakups. Alabama led the nation in all five major defensive categories as the Tide captured the national championship. He then was drafted in the fifth round of the 2012 NFL Draft, by the Indianapolis Colts.

In Rumph's tenure at Clemson, the Tigers ranked among the top 25 nationally in scoring defense and total defense in each of those five seasons. The 2010 defense was 19th in total defense (320.3 ypg) and 13th in scoring defense (18.8 ppg). Clemson appeared in bowl games to conclude each of those five seasons and won the ACC Atlantic Division title in 2009. Rumph coached 2010 All-American Da'Quan Bowers, who led the nation in sacks (15.5) and was tied for first in the NCAA in tackles for loss (26.0). He also coached defensive end Phillip Merling, who was the No. 32 overall pick by the Miami Dolphins in the 2008 NFL Draft.

Prior to his stint at Clemson, Rumph was the outside linebackers coach at Memphis for three years (2003-05). Memphis appeared in bowl games in each of his three seasons and won a total of 24 games during that time. Memphis beat Mississippi in 2003 and 2004 and the Tigers were ninth in the nation in total defense in 2003. In 2005, the Memphis defense finished 23rd in the nation in turnover margin and led the conference in rush defense (125.6 ypg), which was good for 27th in the NCAA.

Rumph was the defensive backs coach at South Carolina State in 2002, following a five-year stint as head coach at Calhoun County (S.C.) High School. He also served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks/running backs coach at Calhoun County.

Rumph was born Dec. 21, 1971, in Orangeburg, S.C., and played high school football at Calhoun County High School in St. Matthews, S.C. Rumph signed with South Carolina and played linebacker from 1991-94, earning his B.S. degree in 1994. He helped the Gamecocks record their first bowl victory in the 1995 Carquest Bowl. He and his wife Kila are the proud parents of two sons, Christopher and Elijah.

Defensive Coordinator/ILB

Seventh Year

Kirby
SMART

Georgia, 1999

Kirby Smart, the 2012 AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year and the 2009 Broyles Award winner as college football's top assistant coach, is in his seventh season with the Alabama football staff and sixth as defensive coordinator. A former standout defensive back and scholar-athlete at Georgia, Smart is regarded as one of the nation's most well-respected defensive coordinators.

Smart retooled the Alabama defense in 2012, molding a unit that lost six starters to the NFL after the 2011 season. The Tide led the nation in total defense (250.0 ypg), scoring defense (10.9 ppg) and rush defense (76.4 ypg) while ranking seventh in pass defense (174.3 ypg) and pass efficiency defense (103.72). The Alabama defense features two first-team All-Americans in cornerback Dee Milliner and linebacker C.J. Mosley. Milliner was a finalist for the Thorpe Award that goes to the nation's top defensive back after making 54 tackles, with a nation-leading 20 pass deflections, two interceptions and four tackles for loss. Mosley was a finalist for the Butkus Award and led the team with 107 tackles while making seven tackles for loss, four sacks and intercepting two passes. The 107 tackles for Mosley was the second most in the last 25 years by an Alabama defender (Demeco Ryans had 126 in 2003).

The 2011 defense led the nation in all five major categories including total defense (183.6 ypg), scoring defense (8.2 ppg), rushing defense (72.2 ypg), passing defense (111.5 ypg) and pass efficiency defense (83.69 rating). Dont'a Hightower (a finalist for the Lombardi Award, Lott Trophy, Butkus Award and Bednarik Award) led the team in total tackles with 85. The first team all-SEC selection has also recorded 11 tackles for loss, four sacks, eight quarterback hurries, one interception and a blocked kick. Hightower also became the latest in a line of first-round linebackers produced at Alabama, going to the New England Patriots with the 25th pick of the first round in 2012.

Smart's rebuilding job in 2010 was impressive as the Tide remained one of the nation's elite defensive units while replacing nearly the entire defense (nine starters). Alabama led the SEC and ranked third nationally in scoring defense (13.5 ppg) and fifth nationally in total defense (286.4 ypg). UA also ranked first in the SEC (sixth in the NCAA) in pass efficiency defense. Safety Mark Barron and defensive lineman Marcell Dareus earned first team all-SEC honors while Hightower, safety Robert Lester and cornerback Dre Kirkpatrick were second team all-SEC selections.

The 2009 season was a special one for Smart as he not only helped lead Alabama to the national championship, but he also took home the Broyles Award as the top assistant coach in the country. The Alabama defense again was regarded as one of the top units in the country, leading the SEC and ranking second nationally in scoring defense (11.7 ppg), pass efficiency defense (87.7), rush defense (78.1 ypg) and total defense (244.1 ypg).

In the 2010 BCS National Championship game against Texas, the Tide recorded four interceptions and scored a defensive touchdown. Three players on Smart's defense earned first-team All-America honors – linebacker Rolando McClain, cornerback Javier Arenas and nose guard Terrence Cody – while Barron was a third team Associated Press All-American. McClain captured the Butkus Award and Cody was a finalist for several national awards.

The Alabama defense was rated among the nation's best in 2008. The Tide finished third in total defense (263.5 ypg) and seventh in scoring defense (14.3 ppg). Senior captain Rashad Johnson earned first-team All-America honors at safety as well as first team all-SEC recognition after intercepting five passes, including two that were returned for touchdowns. UA recorded 15 interceptions in 2008 and brought back four of those for scores.

Under Smart's guidance in 2007, Johnson led the SEC with six interceptions and earned first team all-SEC honors along with cornerback Simeon Castille. A third member of the Alabama secondary, cornerback Kareem Jackson, was honored at the end of the season as a second team Sporting News Freshman All-American.

Smart joined the Tide after spending the 2006 season as safeties coach with head coach Nick Saban and the NFL's Miami Dolphins. Prior to his stint with the Dolphins, Smart spent six years on the collegiate level with Georgia (1999 and 2005), LSU (2004), Florida State (2002-03), and Valdosta State (2000-01).

As the running backs coach at Georgia in 2005, Smart's Bulldogs unit averaged 162.2 yards per game, third in the SEC. Smart spent the 2004 season as defensive backs coach under Saban at LSU, where he tutored two NFL draft picks: Corey Webster (2nd round, New York Giants) and Travis Daniels (4th round, Miami Dolphins). That season, LSU allowed 157.2 passing yards per game that ranked second in the SEC and fifth nationally.

Smart was a graduate assistant coach under Bobby Bowden and Mickey Andrews at Florida State in 2002-03, having served as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach (2001) and defensive backs (2000) coach at Valdosta State the two previous seasons. He began his coaching career as an administrative assistant at Georgia in 1999.

As a player, Smart was a four-year letterman at defensive back for the Bulldogs, where he was a first team all-SEC pick as a senior. He finished his career with 13 interceptions, fourth in Georgia annals, and led the Bulldogs with six interceptions in 1997 and five in 1998. A four-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, Smart earned his undergraduate degree in finance from Georgia and his master's degree from Florida State in 2003.

A native of Bainbridge, Ga., Smart is married to the former Mary Beth Lycett of McDonough, Ga. The couple are the proud parents of twins (Weston and Julia) and son (Andrew).

Outside Linebackers

Second Year

Lance THOMPSON

The Citadel, 1987

Lance Thompson is a familiar name on the Alabama coaching staff, now in his third stint at Alabama after joining the Crimson Tide in January of 2012. He coaches the outside linebackers for the Tide (as he did in 2007 and 2008). Thompson returned to the Alabama staff after spending three seasons at Tennessee.

Alabama's defense had to replace several veterans in 2012, including both starting outside linebackers (Courtney Upshaw and Jerrell Harris) along with key reserve Alex Watkins. Sophomores Xzavier Dickson and Adrian Hubbard stepped into starting roles and performed well, while true freshman Denzel Devall also earned playing time. Hubbard led the outside linebackers with 41 tackles, a team-high 11 tackles for loss (54 yards), seven sacks (44 yards), four quarterback hurries and three forced fumbles. Dickson added 33 tackles with five tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks.

Thompson spent three years at Tennessee (2009-11) working with the linebackers the first two seasons and the defensive line in 2011. As linebackers coach, he guided Nick Reveiz to a team-high 108 tackles in 2010. Reveiz also was a finalist for the Burlsworth Trophy, presented to a former walk-on having the biggest impact on his team.

Alabama put together an impressive 12-2 record in Thompson's second season in Tuscaloosa, winning the 2008 SEC West title and a BCS bowl bid. The Tide ranked third nationally in total defense (263.5 ypg) and seventh nationally in scoring defense (14.3 ppg) in 2008. Thompson was named the Rivals.com National Recruiter of the Year for his work in helping land what was widely regarded as the nation's top signing class in 2008.

Previously, Thompson was a member national championship staffs at Georgia Tech and LSU. Thompson has been a member of two SEC championship coaching staffs, two ACC championship staffs and one Conference USA divisional winner.

Thompson served as the defensive coordinator at UCF for three seasons (2004-06). In 2005, his unit produced a pair of All-Conference USA first team selections in defensive end Paul Carrington and cornerback Joe Burnett.

The Golden Knights also were the 2005 Conference USA Eastern Division champions. He helped develop one of the nation's youngest defenses at UCF in 2004 and the group came together to hold the opposition to 21 points or fewer in three of the final four games of the season.

In his first stint with Saban, Thompson spent two seasons at LSU as the assistant head coach in charge of recruiting and the tight ends coach for the Tigers during their national championship season in 2003. Thompson began his tenure at LSU in 2002 as the defensive line coach. In his first year with the Tigers, Thompson coached defensive tackle Chad Lavalais to first team all-SEC honors while the Tigers front four racked up 22 sacks.

Thompson also coached for four seasons on head coach George O'Leary's staff at Georgia Tech. In 2001, he coached a defensive line that recorded 21 sacks, including 10 by All-America defensive end Greg Gathers.

He served as Alabama's defensive line coach in 1999-2000, as the Crimson Tide won the 1999 SEC championship and earned a BCS bowl berth (2000 Orange Bowl). Players he coached at Alabama during that two-year period included all-SEC defensive lineman Jarret Johnson, regarded as one of the most consistent performers in the NFL as a starter with the Baltimore Ravens.

Prior to his first two-year stint at Alabama, Thompson was a part of the Georgia Tech staff for 11 years. During his stay with the Yellow Jackets, Thompson was defensive line coach in 1998, defensive ends coach in 1996 and 1997, and tight ends coach in 1995. Thompson served as Georgia Tech's recruiting coordinator from 1995-98 and then again in 2001. Prior to serving as an on-field coach for the Yellow Jackets, Thompson held the position of director of football operations at Georgia Tech from 1992-94.

Thompson started in coaching in 1988, serving as a graduate assistant for two years at Georgia Tech, followed by two more years as a volunteer assistant in 1990 and 1991. Thompson coached the defensive ends, including All-America and All-Pro Marco Coleman. Georgia Tech earned a share of the national championship in 1990.

As a player, Thompson was a four-year letterman at The Citadel, where he earned his bachelor's degree in education and mathematics in 1987. A native of Riverdale, Ga., Thompson has three daughters: Allie, Christina and Lane.

Special Teams Coord./TE

Sixth Year

Bobby Williams

Purdue, 1982

Bobby Williams is in his sixth season in Tuscaloosa as Alabama's tight ends coach and special teams coordinator. A veteran coach with both college and NFL experience, Williams is a member of head coach Nick Saban's coaching staff for the fourth time in his career, also working together at Michigan State, LSU and the Miami Dolphins.

Williams was a nominee for the 2012 Frank Broyles Award, which goes to the national assistant coach of the year. Alabama's tight ends combination of three-year starter Michael Williams and walk-on senior Kelly Johnson performed well with 29 receptions for 222 yards and four scores. Place-kicker Jeremy Shelley was the only kicker in the nation to not miss a kick, going 69-for-69 on extra points and hitting all 11 of his field goals. Punter Cody Mandell turned in a career season with a 44.3 yards per kick average with 19 punts inside the 20-yard line and 14 punts of more than 50 yards.

In 2011, Williams' tight end duo of Brad Smelley and Williams combined for 50 receptions resulting in 547 yards for the Crimson Tide. Smelley recorded a team-best four receiving touchdowns, while Williams tacked on another two scores in 2011. On special teams, Marquis Maze ranked ninth in the nation and third in the Southeastern Conference, averaging 13.2 yards per punt return with one touchdown. Those numbers earned Maze a spot on the all-SEC second team as a specialist. Alabama ranked 19th in the nation in kickoff returns (24.1 ypg). The Tide allowed only 11 punts to be returned in 2011, for a total of 51 yards.

Williams was instrumental in the development of Preston Dial in 2010, as the senior had a breakout season under his tutelage. On top of his exceptional blocking abilities, Dial hauled in a career-best 25 passes for 264 yards and three scores. Williams also had an outstanding season as a dominating blocker on the edge in the Alabama running game while catching eight passes for 100 yards and a touchdown.

The veteran coach had to replace both kickers in 2010 with the losses of Leigh Tiffin and P.J. Fitzgerald. Mandell won the punting duties as a true freshman and averaged 39.2 yards per kick, knocking 13 inside the 20. Fellow freshman Cade Foster split field goal duties with sophomore Shelley. Foster drilled seven field goals, including five over 40 yards while Shelley handled the closer attempts. Trent Richardson ranked 29th nationally in kickoff returns and Maze was 16th in punt returns.

During the national championship season in 2009, Williams had to replace a pair of senior tight ends from the 2008 roster. The Alabama offense did not miss a beat as Colin Peek emerged as one of the team's top targets, earning second team Associated Press all-SEC honors with 26 catches for 313 yards and three touchdowns.

Williams also oversaw 2009 Lou Groza finalist Leigh Tiffin at place-kicker. Tiffin earned first team AP All-America status. Javier Arenas set the SEC career records for punt return yards and touchdowns. Punter P.J. Fitzgerald had a career season for the Tide in 2009 by averaging 41.5 yards per kick, with 19 inside the 20-yard line.

The special teams in 2008 were a big weapon for the Tide under Williams. Arenas broke two punt returns for touchdowns, Tiffin was a Groza Award semifinalist and connected on 20-of-29 on field goals while Fitzgerald had a then-career-best average of 41.1 yards per punt with 15 inside the 20. Tight ends Nick Walker and Travis McCall combined for 23 starts, the best seasons of their career in terms of production.

Williams spent the 2005 and 2006 seasons as the running backs coach with the Dolphins. In his first season, Miami averaged 118.6 yards rushing per game, the second-best figure by the team from 1985-2005.

In 2004, Williams served as the associate head coach/wide receivers coach at LSU, where he coached a pair of future NFL first-round picks in Craig Davis and Dwayne Bowe. Davis and Bowe ranked in the top 10 in the SEC for both receptions per game and receiving yards per game in 2004. Prior to LSU, Williams had a one-year stint with the Detroit Lions as wide receivers coach in 2003.

Williams followed Saban as the head coach at Michigan State and served in that post from 2000-02. He led the Spartans to a victory over Florida in the 2000 Citrus Bowl after the 1999 season, in his first game as the school's head coach. He also guided Michigan State to a 7-5 mark in 2001, his second full season as head coach. That season culminated with a victory over Fresno State in the Silicon Valley Football Classic, as he became the first coach in Michigan State history to lead his team to victories in his first two bowl appearances.

He previously was an assistant on the Spartans staff from 1990-99, during which time he tutored the running backs under Saban. Spartan backs produced nine individual 1,000-yard rushing seasons in Williams' 10 years in that post, including T.J. Duckett, Atlanta's first-round draft choice in 2002.

Williams earned his start in coaching as running backs/defensive backs coach at Ball State from 1983-84. He followed that with a five-year stint (1985-89) as offensive backfield coach at Eastern Michigan.

Williams is a 1982 graduate of Purdue, where he earned his degree in general management and was a four-year letterman for the Boilermakers. He started his career at running back before moving to the secondary and starting in his final three seasons. A tri-captain as a senior in 1981, Williams was a part of three bowl teams as a player. He then served one year (1982) as a graduate assistant at his alma mater. A native of St. Louis, Williams and his wife Sheila have a daughter Nataly and a son Nicholas, a former wide receiver for the Crimson Tide.

Dir. Strength & Conditioning

Seventh Year

Scott COCHRAN

LSU, 2001

The booming voice you hear leading a pre-practice stretch or encouraging a Crimson Tide player to finish a workout session strong is that of Director of Strength and Conditioning Scott Cochran. The high-energy coach, who is a two-time national strength coach of the year, joined the Alabama staff in 2007 after spending three seasons with the New Orleans Hornets of the NBA as an assistant strength coach. Cochran has been on Nick Saban's staff for all four national titles, as he served as an assistant at LSU in 2003.

Cochran is nationally regarded as one of the best in the area of strength and conditioning – and the performances of Alabama's players on the field prove that to be true. He received one of the highest honors in his field when he was named the 2011 Samson Strength & Conditioning Coach of the Year as featured in American Football Quarterly. He earlier was named the Samson Strength & Conditioning Coach of the Year following the 2008 season.

Prior to the start of spring drills, Cochran implements coach Nick Saban's offseason workout plan, which includes the well-known "Fourth Quarter Program" – a very important step in helping UA players develop physically and prepare for the upcoming practices.

It is no coincidence that through improvements off the field in strength and conditioning, Alabama is known as one of the most physically dominant teams in the country. The main goal of the program is to win the fourth quarter and wear down the opponent as the game goes on. On the way to the 2009 national championship, Alabama did just that as they won the fourth quarter by an astounding scoring margin of 121-32. The Tide continued the trend of finishing in 2011, as it again dominated the fourth quarter en route to UA's second national championship in three years with a 111-18 fourth-quarter scoring margin.

Cochran oversees Alabama's new 37,000-square-foot weight room that is one of the largest venues of its kind in the country. The new $9 million facility features 21,000-square feet on the first level and 16,000-square feet on the second level. The ground level comprises a weight room that is highlighted by 20 combination racks that feature platforms that are built into the ground for a level surface that provides a safer training environment. The weight rooms also has a state-of-the-art performance nutrition center to fuel Alabama student-athletes, physicians' offices and strength and conditioning offices.

While in the NBA with the Hornets from 2004-06, Cochran's duties included assisting with the exercise and strength conditioning programs to help players achieve and maintain optimal fitness throughout the NBA season. With the Hornets, he coached NBA standouts Chris Paul, Baron Davis, David West and Tyson Chandler.

Prior to joining the Hornets staff, Cochran worked for his alma mater Louisiana State as an assistant strength coach in 2003 (13-1, BCS National Champions) and 2004 (9-3, Capital One Bowl). He was a graduate assistant in Baton Rouge from 2001-03. Cochran returned to LSU after starting his career in the strength and conditioning field at University Laboratory High School in Baton Rouge, La. He held that position from 1998-2001 before returning to LSU as a graduate assistant for all sports from 2001-03. Cochran then was hired on to the full-time staff for the 2003-04 season.

A native of New Orleans, Cochran received a bachelor's degree in kinesiology from LSU in 2001 and added a master's degree in sports management from LSU in 2003. Cochran was born on March 21, 1979, and is married to the former Cissy Schepens. They have three children, including son (Beau) and two daughters (Savannah and Lucy).

Director Football Operations

Third Year

Joe PANNUNZIO

Southern Colorado, 1982

Joe Pannunzio is in his third year at Alabama, joining the Crimson Tide coaching staff as director of football operations in February, 2011.

Pannunzio has nearly three decades of college football experience. He spent the previous five years at the University of Miami and was the head coach at Murray State the previous six seasons. His primary role at Alabama is to oversee the administration and operation of the football program.

Pannunzio served as the tight ends/special teams coordinator at Miami from 2006-10. The Hurricanes made four bowl appearances in his five years in Coral Gables, including trips to the 2006 MPC Computers Bowl, the 2008 Emerald Bowl, the 2009 Champs Sports Bowl and the 2010 Sun Bowl.

During his tenure at Miami, Pannunzio coached the likes of Greg Olsen, a first-round NFL Draft pick of the Chicago Bears. He also tutored Jimmy Graham, a third-round pick of the New Orleans Saints, and Dedrick Epps, who was selected in the seventh round by the San Diego Chargers.

While the head coach at Murray State from 2000-05, Pannunzio led the Racers to the 2002 Ohio Valley championship, joining Mike Gottfried, Frank Beamer and Houston Nutt as one of the four coaches to win a conference title at the school. Pannunzio also led Murray State to the 2002 NCAA Championship Subdivision playoffs.

Prior to becoming a head coach for the Racers, Pannunzio spent five years working for Tommy Tuberville at Mississippi and Auburn. Before that, he served four years under Jim Wacker at TCU and Minnesota.

He also coached for seven years at Mesa (Colo.) College, where the team appeared in the NAIA National Championship Game twice and led the nation in total offense and scoring once. His two stints at Mesa wrapped around two years at Kansas, where he worked under Gottfried.

Kevin STEELE

Tennessee, 1981

Kevin Steele returned to Alabama as the Crimson Tide's Director of Player Personnel in February of 2013. Steele, who spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons on head coach Nick Saban's defensive staff at Alabama, comes to the Capstone following three years as Clemson's defensive coordinator (2009-11).

At Alabama, Steele's main charge is to direct the recruiting efforts for the Crimson Tide. He will also assist with camps, clinics and other football-related events. In addition, his responsibilities will include assisting with the administration and operation of the football program.

Steele directed Clemson's defense from 2009-2011 and helped the Tigers win the 2011 Atlantic Coast Conference Championship. His 2010 defense led the ACC and ranked 13th nationally in points allowed, surrendering just 18.8 points per game.

During a two-year stint as the Crimson Tide's defensive coordinator from 2007-08, Steele and Saban turned Alabama's defense into one of the best in the nation. The 2008 defensive unit ranked second nationally in rushing defense, allowing just 74.1 yards per game while tying for third in total defense (263.5 ypg) and ranking seventh in scoring defense (14.3 ppg).

Steele worked at Florida State under head coach Bobby Bowden for four seasons (2003-06). He was named executive head coach for the Seminoles in 2005, as Steele earned a reputation as an outstanding recruiter. He was named the Rivals.com National Recruiter of the Year after landing the nation's no. 1-ranked recruiting class at FSU in 2005. His pupils include Michael Boulware, a finalist for the 2004 NFL Rookie of Year Award with the Seattle Seahawks, Ernie Sims, the ninth overall pick by the Detroit Lions in the 2006 NFL Draft and Lawrence Timmons, a first-round pick of the Steelers in 2007.

Steele was the head coach at Baylor University from 1999-2002 before moving to Florida State. He coached the linebackers for the NFL's Carolina Panthers from 1995-98 before taking the head coaching job at Baylor and had assistant coaching stints at Nebraska (1989-94), Tennessee (1987-88), Oklahoma State (1984-86) and New Mexico State (1983).

As a player, Steele spent his freshman year at Furman before transferring to Tennessee, where he was a member of Johnny Majors' 1978 and 1979 squads. He stayed on as a student assistant coach in 1980 and then as a graduate assistant in 1981. He was promoted to outside linebackers coach in 1982. Steele then moved to New Mexico State, where he served as recruiting coordinator and linebackers coach in 1983. From 1984-86, he coached linebackers and tight ends at Oklahoma State. He returned to his alma mater in 1987 and spent two years as the defensive backs coach for the Volunteers.

From 1989-94, Steele coached the linebackers under Nebraska legend Tom Osborne. During his six years in Lincoln, the Cornhuskers went 60-11, appeared in six bowl games, won four conference championships and captured the 1994 national championship with a 13-0 record. In 1995, Steele made the jump to the NFL as the linebackers coach at Carolina. Under head coach Dom Capers, the Panthers reached the NFC Championship game in their second season (1996). After four years with Carolina, Steele was hired as head coach at Baylor in 1999.

The Dillon, S.C., native is a 1981 graduate of the University of Tennessee. Steele and his wife, Linda, have one son (Gordon) and one daughter (Caroline).

JEFF ALLEN

ASSISTANT AD FOR SPORTS MEDICINE

Director of sports medicine Jeff Allen is in his seventh season at the University of Alabama and was promoted to title of assistant athletics director for sports medicine in June, 2012. Before joining the Crimson Tide, Allen was the head athletic trainer at the University of Central Florida. At UCF, Allen was responsible for all of the sports medicine needs for the entire department.

One of the most well-respected athletic trainers in the country, Allen has authored several published articles and is a regular speaker at national and state athletic training conferences. He had work published by The Journal of Athletic Training and Athletic Therapy Today. Allen has served as a featured speaker at conferences held by the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Southeast Athletic Trainers Association, as well as state meetings in Georgia, Kentucky and Tennessee.

Prior to his post at UCF, Allen was head athletic trainer at Tennessee-Chattanooga from 2000-04, overseeing the athletic training operations for 16 varsity sports while handling all of the duties associated with the football program.

Allen was an assistant athletic trainer at the University of Kentucky from 1997-2000 and earlier served as an assistant athletic trainer from 1995-97 at Valdosta (Ga.) State, where he was head athletic trainer for the football and baseball teams. He earned his master's degree in health and physical education from Valdosta State University in 1995 while also serving as a graduate assistant for two years.

A 1993 graduate of Georgia Southern University with a bachelor's degree in health and physical education, Allen and his wife Mary have one daughter, Makannah.

JEFF SPRINGER

ATHLETIC EQUIPMENT DIRECTOR

The all-important role of athletic equipment director is coordinated by Jeff Springer, who joined the Alabama football staff in March of 2011. Springer joined the Crimson Tide staff after serving four years (2007-10) as the head athletic equipment manager at Louisiana Tech.

Prior to his time at Louisiana Tech, Springer held the same position at The Citadel in Charleston, S.C., from 2006-07.

A native of Slidell, La., Springer spent three years (2003-05) as the first assistant equipment manager at Louisiana State University. He worked primarily with LSU's football program while also managing women's soccer, women's gymnastics, cheerleading, track and field/cross country, and swimming and diving.

In the summer of 2001, Springer interned with the Miami Dolphins. He spent the next two seasons working as an intern in his home state at LSU and Tulane University.

Springer earned a kinesiology degree from LSU in 2001. He is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association and the American Football Coaches Association.

Springer is married to the former Anna Bannister and the couple has one daughter, Bailey.

WILLIE CARL MARTIN

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Willie Carl Martin joined the Alabama football staff as director of player development (academics) in March of 2007, after serving as head football coach at Benjamin Russell High School in Alexander City from 2001-07. Martin's role at Alabama is to help in the personal development of each student-athlete and see to it that they reach their full potential from an academic and personal standpoint.

Martin compiled a 52-24 record in six seasons as head coach at Benjamin Russell. Previously an assistant coach for the school, where he coached future NFL receiver Terrell Owens, Martin served 24 years in the Alexander City School System as a coach, teacher and administrator. A native of Alexander City, Martin joined the school system there in 1983 as a teacher and coach for Alexander Middle School. In 1985, he moved on to Benjamin Russell High School in a similar capacity and was elevated to head football coach in 2001. He led the Wildcats to the state championship in 2001 and was an assistant during the 1997 and 2000 seasons when they finished as runner-up. Martin served four years on the Central Board of Control for the Alabama High School Athletic Association (AHSAA).

A 1975 graduate of Northeastern State University in Tahlequah, Okla., Martin was inducted into the NSU Athletic Hall of Fame in 2007. He was a four-year letterman (1969-72) in football for NSU as an offensive lineman and earned All-America and first-team All-Oklahoma Collegiate Conference honors as a senior in 1972. After graduation, the Houston Oilers of the National Football League (NFL) drafted Martin. However, he chose to compete in the Canadian Football League (CFL) where his 10-year career featured stops in Edmonton and Winnipeg. Martin was named All-Pro in eight of his 10 seasons in the CFL, participated in six Grey Cup games and won two championships.

Martin and his wife Leslie Ruth have two daughters, Carla and Kizzy, and a grandson Malik.

KERRY STEVENSON

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Kerry Stevenson joined Nick Saban's staff at Alabama in February of 2013 as the Crimson Tide's Director of Player Development. Stevenson comes to the Capstone after spending the last 10 years as the head football coach at Vigor High School in Prichard, Ala.

Stevenson takes over for Kevin Sherrer, who was named the defensive coordinator at South Alabama. In the director of player development role, Stevenson's main focus will be off-the-field activities of Alabama's football student-athletes, and he will serve as an important resource in balancing the demands of academics, athletics and community outreach. He will also assist with personal development programs, including the peer intervention group.

At Vigor, Stevenson won the state championship with a perfect 15-0 record in 2008. His team finished as the state runner-up in 2011 and finished 12-3. He coached former Alabama player B.J. Scott at Vigor as well as current UA players Jalston Fowler and Marvin Shinn. Before being named the head coach, Stevenson was an assistant coach for a year at Vigor in 2002. He spent seven years (1995-2001) as an assistant at Huffman High School and two years (1993-94) at Mariner High School in Fort Myers, Fla.

Stevenson attended Alabama A&M on an academic scholarship, where he received both his undergraduate (1991) and graduate (1993) degrees. He played high school football at Huffman and the team advanced to the state championship game in his senior year.

Born in Birmingham, Stevenson and his wife, Tracy, have a daughter (Aisha) and a son (Jaylon).

8/8	MICHIGAN (0-1)	14
2/2	ALABAMA (1-0)	41

Saturday, Sept. 1 • Cowboys Stadium • Arlington, Texas
Attendance: 90,413 • TV: ABC

ARLINGTON, Texas — An explosive Crimson Tide offense that showed balance between its rushing and passing games, along with a tough defense that also showed an opportunistic side, decided the outcome early as the No. 2 ranked Alabama football team raced out to a 31-0 lead in the second quarter on the way to a decisive 41-14 victory over No. 8 Michigan Saturday night in the Cowboys Classic at Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas.

AJ McCarron passed for 199 yards and two touchdowns, freshman running back T.J. Yeldon rushed for 111 yards and linebacker C.J. Mosley returned an interception for a score as Alabama dominated the Wolverines and put the game away early. Yeldon became the first true freshman running back in Alabama history to start his career by eclipsing 100 yards rushing.

Saturday, Sept. 8 • Bryant-Denny Stadium • Tuscaloosa, Ala.
Attendance: 101,821 • TV: SEC Network

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — The Alabama defense forced four turnovers, including two that led to ensuing touchdowns, as the top-ranked Crimson Tide (2-0) cruised to a 35-0 victory over Western Kentucky (1-1) Saturday afternoon at Bryant-Denny Stadium. Alabama's offense overcame a Hilltoppers defense that was stacked to stifle the Crimson Tide rushing game as quarterback AJ McCarron threw four touchdown passes in an efficient performance.

Two of Alabama's scoring drives needed to cover just 33 and 12 yards after the Tide defense forced WKU turnovers. While Western Kentucky limited the Alabama offense to 103 rushing yards, the Crimson Tide defense produced another dominant performance by holding the explosive Hilltoppers to 224 total yards while garnering Alabama's fourth shutout over the last two seasons. McCarron passed for 219 yards to lead the Tide offense, completing 14 of 19 passes, including three for 92 yards to Kevin Norwood.

Norwood and Christian Jones became the first Alabama tandem since 1950 to post at least two touchdown catches in the same game. Linebacker C.J. Mosley led the Tide defense with 11 tackles, including one quarterback sack, while linebackers Nico Johnson and Adrian Hubbard forced fumbles.

Saturday, Sept. 15 • Reynolds-Razorback Stadium • Fayetteville, Ark.
Attendance: 74,617 • TV: CBS

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. — The top-ranked Crimson Tide (3-0 overall; 1-0 in the Southeastern Conference) was physically dominant on the line of scrimmage both offensively and defensively, and took advantage of five Arkansas turnovers in a 52-0 rout of the Razorbacks (1-2 overall; 0-1 in the SEC) on Saturday afternoon before a crowd of 74,617 at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium.

The margin of victory represents the largest Alabama victory margin in an SEC game since a 55-0 win over Auburn in 1948 and is the fourth-largest margin in an SEC game ranking behind a 65-0 win over Sewanee in 1937, a 66-3 win at Vanderbilt in 1979, and the 55-0 win vs. Auburn in 1948. In addition, the shutout marked the first time Arkansas has failed to score in Fayetteville since 1966.

Alabama had four scoring drives of 30 yards or less, including two of less than 10 yards, as the Tide's defense and special teams forced turnovers leading to scores. AJ McCarron completed 11 of 16 passes for 188 yards and one touchdown, while receiver Christian Jones caught three passes for 73 yards and running back Eddie Lacy had 55 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Alabama offense. Safety HaHa Clinton-Dix set up one score by returning an interception 46 yards to the Arkansas 3-yard line, Vinnie Sunseri ended an Arkansas threat with an interception. Alabama limited the injury-plagued Razorbacks offense to 137 total yards on the day.

Saturday, Sept. 29 • Bryant-Denny Stadium • Tuscaloosa, Ala.
Attendance: 101,821 • TV: ESPN

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — Alabama receiver Amari Cooper caught a game-high eight passes for 84 yards and two touchdowns and placekicker Jeremy Shelley kicked four field goals as the top-ranked Alabama Crimson Tide (5-0 overall; 2-0 in the Southeastern Conference) put together a methodical performance in a 33-14 defeat of Mississippi (3-2 overall; 0-1 SEC) on Saturday night before a sellout crowd of 101,821 at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

Cooper scored on passes of 16 and 12 yards from quarterback AJ McCarron, who set a new Alabama mark for consecutive pass attempts without an interception, breaking the mark of 190 previously set by Brodie Croyle in 2005. McCarron ended the game with an active streak of 206 pass attempts without an interception while completing 22 of 30 for 180 yards and two scores without an interception.

Running back Eddie Lacy led all rushers with 82 yards on 19 carries and Christion Jones returned a second quarter kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown for the Crimson Tide. Linebacker C.J. Mosley led the Alabama defense with 10 tackles while cornerback Dee Milliner intercepted a pass, broke up four passes and assisted on a quarterback sack.

Saturday, Oct. 13 • Memorial Stadium • Columbia, Mo.
Attendance: 71,004 • TV: CBS

COLUMBIA, Mo. — A pair of Alabama running backs exceeded 100 rushing yards and the Crimson Tide defense contained an explosive Missouri offense as Alabama (6-0 overall; 3-0 in the Southeastern Conference) defeated the Missouri Tigers, 42-10, Saturday afternoon at Memorial Stadium. The game was delayed for 40 minutes by lightning in the second quarter with Alabama leading, 27-0.

Alabama's Eddie Lacy rushed for a career-high 176 yards and three touchdowns on 18 carries while T.J. Yeldon gained 144 rushing yards and two touchdowns on 18 attempts as the Tide rushed for 362 yards in the game. Overall, Alabama amassed 533 yards of total offense, adding 171 passing yards to its rushing total.

Other than a kickoff return for a touchdown and a drive to a field goal, Alabama controlled the game by limiting Missouri (3-4 overall; 0-4 SEC) to 129 total yards, including just three rushing yards. Alabama quarterback AJ McCarron passed for 171 yards while completing 16 of 21 attempts without an interception. C.J. Mosley led the Alabama defense with 12 tackles including a sack for nine yards and a fumble recovery.

Saturday, Oct. 20 • Neyland Stadium • Knoxville, Tenn.
Attendance: 102,455 • TV: ESPN

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — Alabama quarterback AJ McCarron passed for a career-high 306 yards and four touchdowns, connecting with freshman wide receiver Amari Cooper seven times for 162 yards and two scores as the top-ranked Crimson Tide (7-0 overall; 4-0 in the Southeastern Conference) dominated Tennessee (3-4 overall; 0-4 SEC) in a 44-13 victory before a capacity crowd of 102,455 at Neyland Stadium on Saturday night. Freshman running back T.J. Yeldon rushed for 129 yards and two touchdowns to lead the Alabama ground game.

The latest renewal of the storied "Third Saturday in October" rivalry was marked by an explosive night by the Alabama offense, which rolled to 539 yards of total offense behind a potent passing game. The Alabama defense bottled up what had been an exciting Tennessee offense, limiting the Volunteers to 282 total yards on the night while forcing two turnovers. Alabama repelled Tennessee drives inside Crimson Tide territory several times, including a fourth-down stop at the Tide 33 and an interception by safety Robert Lester in the end zone that snuffed another Volunteers' threat.

Cooper had six catches for 120 yards and a touchdown in the first half alone as the Tide raced to a 23-10 lead at intermission before putting away the game in the second half. The victory was Alabama's sixth straight in the series. McCarron enjoyed an efficient night passing as he completed 17 of 22 attempts just one week after suffering a minor knee injury in the second half against Missouri.

Saturday, Oct. 27 • Bryant-Denny Stadium • Tuscaloosa, Ala.
Attendance: 101,821 • TV: ESPN

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — Top-ranked Alabama's offense started the game with three consecutive touchdown drives and the Crimson Tide defense produced another dominant performance as the Crimson Tide (8-0 overall; 5-0 in the Southeastern Conference) methodically defeated 11th-ranked Mississippi State (7-1 overall; 3-1 SEC), 38-7, Saturday night at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

Alabama quarterback AJ McCarron had a typically efficient performance, running his stretch of passes thrown without an interception to a school-record 262 as he passed for 208 yards and two touchdowns while completing 16 of 23 pass attempts to spark the Crimson Tide offense. Alabama's defense held Mississippi State to 256 yards of total offense and kept the Bulldogs off the scoreboard until the reserves allowed a late score as Alabama built a 24-0 halftime lead that reached 38-0 in the late stages.

The Alabama defense was led by safety Vinnie Sunseri's career-best eight tackles. Linebacker C.J. Mosley had seven tackles, defensive back Nick Perry had five stops and the Alabama defense produced one quarterback sack, three tackles for loss (for 23 yards), two forced fumbles, one interception and five pass breakups.

5/5	LSU (7-2, 3-2 SEC)	17

Saturday, Nov. 3 • Tiger Stadium • Baton Rouge, La.
Attendance: 93,374 • TV: CBS

BATON ROUGE, La. — Alabama running back T.J. Yeldon took a swing pass from quarterback AJ McCarron and raced 28 yards for a touchdown with 51 seconds left in the game to cap a frantic 72-yard drive in five plays to give top-ranked Alabama Crimson Tide to a stunning 21-17 victory over 5th-ranked LSU on Saturday night in Tiger Stadium.

After a missed LSU field goal attempt with 1:34 remaining in the game, Alabama took over at its own 28-yard line facing a 17-14 deficit. McCarron smoothly led the Crimson Tide downfield for the go-ahead score, hitting passes on three successive plays to start the drive: an 18-yard pass to receiver Kevin Norwood to the Alabama 46, a 15-yarder to Norwood to the LSU 39, and an 11-yarder to Norwood to the LSU 28. After the next play was an incomplection, McCarron found Yeldon alone in the left flat and he did the rest, eluding two would-be tacklers behind good blocking to complete the drive.

Prior to that march by Alabama, this classic had all the makings of a stunning upset as LSU quarterback Zach Mettenberger passed for 296 yards, including 206 in the second half, to lead the Tigers to a 17-14 lead in the final stages of the game. Mettenberger and the LSU offense consistently made big plays, particularly in third down situations, while the Alabama defense was surprisingly vulnerable in the second half. LSU's offense mounted scoring drives of 58 and 90 yards on consecutive possessions in the second half, played turnover-free football and unveiled an explosive passing game in the second half.

LSU lost despite converting 10 of 20 third downs into first downs while Alabama went 1-for-9 on the night in third down conversions. The Tide overcame a minus-two turnover margin, gave up multiple plays of more than 20 and 30 yards and allowed the most total yards (435) to an opponent since LSU gained 433 in 2010, a 24-21 Crimson Tide loss.

15/14	TEXAS A&M (8-2, 5-2 SEC)	29
1/1	ALABAMA (9-1, 6-1 SEC)	24

Saturday, Nov. 10 • Bryant-Denny Stadium • Tuscaloosa, Ala.
Attendance: 101,821 • TV: CBS

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — Texas A&M quarterback Johnny Manziel passed for 253 yards and accounted for 345 yards of total offense to lead the 15th-ranked Aggies (8-2 overall; 5-2 in the Southeastern Conference) to a 29-24 upset of top-ranked Alabama (9-1 overall; 6-1 in the SEC) on Saturday afternoon at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

Manziel led the Aggies to a shocking 20-0 first quarter lead by leading the Aggies to touchdowns on their first three offensive possessions of the game before the Crimson Tide could begin to rally. Put in the position of having virtually no margin for error, the Alabama offense could not overcome the deficit despite the Tide defense righting its ship for most of the next three quarters. Even though Alabama outgained A&M 431 to 418, three turnovers proved fatal to the Crimson Tide comeback. Two turnovers in A&M territory, a fumble at the Aggie 34 and an interception on the goal line, ended potential Alabama scoring drives in the fourth quarter.

The outcome dealt a serious blow to Alabama's national title hopes, but the Crimson Tide remains in the driver's seat for an SEC West Division title. The Tide entered the game two games up on all other teams in the division, and remains one game up in the standings needing a win over Auburn on November 24 to clinch a spot in the SEC Championship Game on December 1. A&M is the only team that can win a divisional tie-breaker with Alabama due to the win over the Tide, but needs an Alabama loss to Auburn to get that berth.

For Alabama, running back Eddie Lacy rushed for 92 yards and a touchdown on 16 carries while receiver Amari Cooper caught six passes for 136 yards and a touchdown. McCarron completed 21 of 34 passes for 309 yards and two scores, but was undone by the two interceptions. Manziel rushed for 92 yards to lead the Aggies, also throwing for 253 yards while completing 24 of 31 with two touchdowns.

WESTERN CAROLINA (1-10)	0
4/5 ALABAMA (10-1)	49

Saturday, Nov. 17 • Bryant-Denny Stadium • Tuscaloosa, Ala.
Attendance: 101,126 • TV: SEC Network

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — Running back Eddie Lacy rushed for three first-half touchdowns while gaining 99 yards on 10 carries as fourth-ranked Alabama (10-1 overall; 6-1 in the Southeastern Conference) made quick work of Western Carolina (1-10; 0-8 in the Southern Conference) in a 49-0 shutout of the Catamounts before a crowd of 101,126 on a sunny Saturday afternoon at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

The Alabama defense held WCU to 163 total yards while earning its third shutout of the season. Meanwhile, the Tide offense amassed 460 total yards while rushing for an even 300 yards and passing for 160. The Tide converted six of nine third-down plays into first downs and averaged 8.8 yards per play on the afternoon. Carolina was limited to 70 rushing yards and only eight first downs.

Alabama's early dominance gave the Crimson Tide a chance to rest its starters for much of the game to set up a crucial season-ending home game with arch-rival Auburn with the Southeastern Conference Western Division title on the line. The Crimson Tide wasted little time, scoring on their first three possessions to create an opportunity for their starters to rest with the annual clash with Auburn awaiting one week away. Alabama scored on every offensive possession of the first half and began resting starters in the second quarter as the game was quickly out of reach.

Alabama scored on drives of 62, 44 and 62 yards on successive drives in the first period to gain a 21-0 lead in the game's first 10:50, then continued building on that lead through the remainder of the first half. The Crimson Tide amassed a 338-40 edge in total offense during the first half, including a 16-2 margin in first downs and a 192-15 margin in rushing yardage while scoring on all five of its first half possessions.

Saturday, Nov. 24 • Bryant-Denny Stadium • Tuscaloosa, Ala.
Attendance: 101,821 • TV: CBS

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — Second-ranked Alabama (11-1 overall; 7-1 in the Southeastern Conference) scored touchdowns on its first seven offensive possessions to quickly put away struggling arch-rival Auburn (3-9; 0-8 in the SEC), 49-0, in the latest renewal of the Iron Bowl before a capacity crowd of 101,821 on a crisp, sunny Saturday afternoon at Bryant-Denny Stadium. The victory gave Alabama the SEC Western Division title and a berth in the SEC Championship Game next Saturday in Atlanta against Georgia.

Alabama quarterback AJ McCarron passed for 216 yards and four touchdowns, completing 15 of 21 passes without an interception, running back Eddie Lacy rushed for 131 yards and two touchdowns on 18 carries and receiver Amari Cooper caught five passes for 109 yards and two scores to highlight the Crimson Tide output. Meanwhile, Alabama's defense garnered its fourth shutout of the 2012 season, the most in a single season by a Crimson Tide team since 1979.

Senior safety Robert Lester led the Alabama defense with five tackles and an interception and the Alabama defense created seven tackles for losses, forced three fumbles (recovering one), intercepted two passes and had two quarterback sacks. Alabama held Auburn to 163 total yards, 92 rushing and 71 passing, and only seven first downs on the day.

Alabama's offense racked up 483 total yards in the game, 267 rushing and 216 passing, while gaining 25 first downs and averaging 5.7 yards per play. The Tide was 11-for-14 on third down and held possession for 33:11 of game time.

Saturday, Dec. 1 • Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.
Attendance: 75,624 • TV: CBS

ATLANTA, Ga. — Two of college football's most storied programs put on a classic battle in the Georgia Dome in a rollicking showcase of national importance that pushed both teams to their limits, but second-ranked Alabama (12-1 overall) had just enough to outlast third-ranked Georgia (11-2 overall), beating the Bulldogs, 32-28, to win the 2012 Southeastern Conference Championship before a crowd of 75,624 Saturday evening.

Now the Crimson Tide awaits Sunday evening's Bowl Championship Series announcements, anticipating a berth in the National Championship Game against undefeated Notre Dame (12-0 overall). The BCS National Championship Game is scheduled for Monday, January 7, at Sun Life Stadium in Miami, Fla.

Alabama running back Eddie Lacy rushed for 181 yards and two touchdowns on 20 carries to earn Most Outstanding Player honors as the Tide amassed 512 total yards, with Lacy and freshman T.J. Yeldon (153 yards on 25 yards) both eclipsing the century mark on the ground. Wideout Amari Cooper caught seven passes for 127 yards and a touchdown and quarterback AJ McCarron passed for 162 yards and a score while completing 13 of 21 passes with one interception.

Safety Robert Lester led the Tide defense with eight tackles, linebacker C.J. Mosley had seven stops and linebacker Xzavier Dickson had five tackles and two quarterback sacks.

Monday, Jan. 7 • Sun Life Stadium • Miami Gardens, Fla.
Attendance: 80,120 • TV: ESPN

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. — The Alabama Crimson Tide football team established its dominance early on the way to a dominant performance as the Tide earned the programs 15th national championship in football with a 42-14 victory over Notre Dame in the 2013 Discover BCS National Championship Game on Monday night.

Playing before a Sun Life Stadium record crowd of 80,120 the Tide raced to touchdowns on their first three offensive possessions and built a lead that eventually reached 35-0 in the third quarter. The title, Alabama's third in the past four seasons, concluded a 13-1 season for the Tide while Notre Dame fell to 12-1 with the loss. Tide quarterback AJ McCarron passed for four touchdowns and 264 yards while completing 20 of 28 attempts without throwing an interception.

Running back Eddie Lacy rushed for 140 yards and a touchdown while averaging seven yards per carry, wide receiver Amari Cooper caught six passes for 105 yards and two scores, and running back T.J. Yeldon rushed for 108 yards and a touchdown as the Tide offense flourished behind an outstanding performance by its offensive line. Alabama gained 529 total yards while exhibiting incredible balance, rushing for 265 yards and passing for 264.

With the win, Alabama's 2012 senior class won a school record 49 games over the past four seasons while losing only five contests. The 48 wins is tied for the second most in college football history and ranks among the best four-year totals in Southeastern Conference history (Florida won 48 games from 2006-09 and Alabama won 48 from 2008-11). Nebraska holds the record for senior class wins among BCS schools, with the 1997 Cornhuskers class posting a 49-2 record and three national championships. Earlier senior classes from Oklahoma (2003), Southern California (2005 & 2006), Florida (2009) and Alabama (2011) all have accumulated 48 wins.
